PREMIER MILLERAND THROWS DOWN THE GAUNTLET

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Cabinet of Premier Millerand was given a vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies today at a session attended by virtually all the members. The vote was 412 in favor of the ministry to 79 against it and with no abstention from voting.

The premier threw down the gauntlet to the opposition in replying to interpretations on the general policy of the cabinet in which deputies Demogagnon and Gerad had resumed personal attacks upon Jules Steeg, the Minister of the Interior.

"If the Chamber," said the Premier, "has thought for a moment that I would deprive myself of the services of any of the men whom I have chosen it has been badly mistaken and does not know me. The Chamber must decide immediately whether or not the Government has its confidence in order that we may get to work."

Com. Fisher said sewers should be charged against general assessment.
