

Needs Make Happy Lives

Unknown Hero Where Lincoln Lay

American's unknown soldier, said to rest with all the army's heroes in a new cemetery in France, was the hero of a battle in the Meuse-Argonne region. He was a private in the 16th Central Postal Directory, and was killed in action on October 11, 1918. His name was never known until recently, when a French soldier found a letter he had written to his mother. The letter was found in a box of his belongings, and it was in it that his name was discovered. The letter was dated October 11, 1918, and it was in it that his name was discovered. The letter was dated October 11, 1918, and it was in it that his name was discovered.

Fortune seemed to have a hand in the life of Abraham Lincoln. He was born on a farm in Kentucky, and he grew up in a poor family. He was a self-made man, and he became one of the greatest leaders in American history. He was a man of many talents, and he was a man of many virtues. He was a man of many talents, and he was a man of many virtues. He was a man of many talents, and he was a man of many virtues.

Memory of the Past. An American soldier had been made for his service in the Meuse-Argonne region. He was a private in the 16th Central Postal Directory, and he was killed in action on October 11, 1918. His name was never known until recently, when a French soldier found a letter he had written to his mother. The letter was found in a box of his belongings, and it was in it that his name was discovered. The letter was dated October 11, 1918, and it was in it that his name was discovered.

LENTINE DAY

Several centuries ago, in the city of Rome, there was a festival called Lentine Day. It was a day of fasting and prayer, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

At the time of the festival, there were many traditions. One of the traditions was that the young men would write letters to the young women, and they would put the letters in a box. The young women would then draw a name from the box, and they would be the ones to receive the letters. This tradition was called Lentine Day, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

MARITIME AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP RACING STARTED LAST EVENING

Fair Audience Braved Eight Below Zero Weather and Witnessed Some Excellent Events—Charles Gorman, for Seniors, and William Logan for Juniors, Lead in Points.

POINTS WON TO DATE
SENIORS
Charles Gorman, St. John's	10
Frank Gorman, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
JUNIORS
William Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10
Walter Logan, St. John's	10

With the thermometer registering eight degrees below zero a few hundred men, women and boys braved the weather last night and attended the Maritime Amateur Skating Championships at the St. John's rink. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

LENTINE DAY

Several centuries ago, in the city of Rome, there was a festival called Lentine Day. It was a day of fasting and prayer, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

At the time of the festival, there were many traditions. One of the traditions was that the young men would write letters to the young women, and they would put the letters in a box. The young women would then draw a name from the box, and they would be the ones to receive the letters. This tradition was called Lentine Day, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Y. M. C. A. Athletes Break Records

Senior Hexathlon Events Last Night—Herb Weeks and J. O. S. Murray Were the Record Men.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletes have broken two of the last year's records for the senior hexathlon events. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

Thistles Play St. Andrews Today

The second round of the Thistles St. Andrews curling tournament will take place this afternoon and evening. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Curling Notes

The analysis of the President's curling matches will be played in the Thistles curling tournament. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

GUARDS' BRIGADE WON THE CLASSIC

The Guards' Brigade won the classic curling tournament. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Aired Boxwood Barkentine Beat

Any Variety of the 1,603 Dogs at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

New York, Feb. 15.—Mr. F. C. Wood, Brooklyn, Mass., is the happy owner and breeder of the Barkentine beat. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Bowling Results In Local Leagues

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
CITY LEAGUE
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100
Woolman	100 90 100 100 100

The Maritime Hockey Games

Sussex Trimmed Chatham, Dorchester Won from Moncton; Kings Delayed by Storm. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Tonight's Games

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. M. C. I. Intercollegiate hockey games will be played in the Maritime Amateur Skating Championships. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

WORLD'S WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPION RETAINED HIS TITLE LAST NIGHT

Jack Britton, Thirty-Seven Years Old, Fought Fifteen Rounds to a Draw With David Shade, Aged Nineteen, at Madison Square Garden, New York, Last Night.

New York, Feb. 15.—Jack Britton, 37, veteran boxer, and David Shade, 19, a powerful kid, fought fifteen rounds to a draw in Madison Square Garden last night. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

Thistles Play St. Andrews Today

The second round of the Thistles St. Andrews curling tournament will take place this afternoon and evening. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Curling Notes

The analysis of the President's curling matches will be played in the Thistles curling tournament. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

GUARDS' BRIGADE WON THE CLASSIC

The Guards' Brigade won the classic curling tournament. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

Needs Make Happy Lives

Unknown Hero Where Lincoln Lay

American's unknown soldier, said to rest with all the army's heroes in a new cemetery in France, was the hero of a battle in the Meuse-Argonne region. He was a private in the 16th Central Postal Directory, and was killed in action on October 11, 1918. His name was never known until recently, when a French soldier found a letter he had written to his mother. The letter was found in a box of his belongings, and it was in it that his name was discovered. The letter was dated October 11, 1918, and it was in it that his name was discovered.

Fortune seemed to have a hand in the life of Abraham Lincoln. He was born on a farm in Kentucky, and he grew up in a poor family. He was a self-made man, and he became one of the greatest leaders in American history. He was a man of many talents, and he was a man of many virtues. He was a man of many talents, and he was a man of many virtues.

Memory of the Past. An American soldier had been made for his service in the Meuse-Argonne region. He was a private in the 16th Central Postal Directory, and he was killed in action on October 11, 1918. His name was never known until recently, when a French soldier found a letter he had written to his mother. The letter was found in a box of his belongings, and it was in it that his name was discovered. The letter was dated October 11, 1918, and it was in it that his name was discovered.

At the time of the festival, there were many traditions. One of the traditions was that the young men would write letters to the young women, and they would put the letters in a box. The young women would then draw a name from the box, and they would be the ones to receive the letters. This tradition was called Lentine Day, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletes have broken two of the last year's records for the senior hexathlon events. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletes have broken two of the last year's records for the senior hexathlon events. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

New York, Feb. 15.—Mr. F. C. Wood, Brooklyn, Mass., is the happy owner and breeder of the Barkentine beat. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletes have broken two of the last year's records for the senior hexathlon events. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

New York, Feb. 15.—Jack Britton, 37, veteran boxer, and David Shade, 19, a powerful kid, fought fifteen rounds to a draw in Madison Square Garden last night. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.

There were two other men still living who were born in the same year as the late President. One was Robert Lincoln, the other was a man named Charles Gorman. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place. They were both born in the same year, and they were both born in the same place.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletes have broken two of the last year's records for the senior hexathlon events. The event was a success, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions. The festival was held in honor of St. Valentine, and it was a day of many traditions.