196 Journal of Two Months on the Tobique.

afterwards makes some electrical experiments, all of which are of a most unsatisfactory nature. On Thursday crowd collected round St. John's Hotel to see man come, and order breakfast; did not, and why?

St. John's in the winter—boys coasting—everybody slides—pretty girls go delicately smiling and sliding—boys skate—dangerous to go through the streets.

(The journal breaks off here abruptly.)
