Increase of Crime in the United States.

The Hutchinson remarks:—"Crimes in America are increasing both in number and atrocity to a horrifying degree. Whoever reads the daily intelligence must arrive at the conclusion that the morality of the masses of the people is far from improving, but on the contrary is awfully deteriorating. Murders, robberies, larcenies, rapes, perjuries, torturies, suicides, are as common as marriages and funerals."

Poverty, says the editor, is the grand cause; and praying and preaching will not cure hunger. Crime is not confined to the poor and ignorant; it is very often preferred to honesty by the educated and comparatively wealthy... Poverty did not stain the floors of 31 Broad street with blood, nor instigate Paul, Strachan, Sadler, Schnyler, and thousands of other villains to forge, lie, cheat, embezzle, and swear falsely. Poverty may be the result of the filthy propensities of those who consume their wealth to get beastly drunk every other day or week, but the drink is the cause. See what a horror Davidson expresses of the grand cause of his family troubles!

A WHITE DEER.—The Cleveland Leader says, that a perfectly white deer was shot in the northern part of that state, a few days ago.
