

03178

37169

August 15th 1919

My dear King:

It has occurred to my mind that you etc of many weeks ago has never been acknowledged. It came when I and my family were spending a month in the South. It followed me there and back again finally reaching me a day or two after I saw you had gone