Ottawa, 21st February, 1902.

Sir:-

With further reference to my letter to you of the 6th December on the subject of the employment of counsel, I have to inform you that a letter has recently been received from Mr. H. J. P. Sissons asking whether his services are to be retained in connection with liquor cases in your Agency. My letter above referred to instructed you as to the conditions under which agents are to be allowed to retain counsel, and I may now add that while Mr. Sissons may be employed when the services of a ~~counsel~~ solicitor are required by you it will continue to be necessary to obtain the authority of the Department before engaging counsel.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

J. P. Wright, Esq.,

Acting Indian Agent,

Fort Frances, Ont.

Indian Affairs, Letterbook,
