

H. CHUBB & Co., Steam Job Printers, 65 Prince Wm. Street.

1872.

1872.

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS, NEW BRUNSWICK.

European and North American and Intercolonial.

Connecting the Bay of Fundy, the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and Amherst, N. S.

Connections are made at Point DuChene,

With the Steamers of the

Prince Edward Island Steam Navigation Co.,

For Summerside, Charlottetown, and Georgetown, P. E. I., Port Hood, Strait of Canso, Pictou, N. S., there connecting with the Nova Scotia Railway for Halifax, N. S. With the steamer "Rothesay Castle," for Richibucto, Miramichi, Shippegan, Caraquette, Bathurst, Dalhousie and Campbellton. And with the Steamers of the Quebec and Gulf Port Steamship Company, for the Ports on the North Shore of New Brunswick and Gulf of St. Lawrence, Father Point, Quebec and Montreal. At Shediac with Stages for Cocaigne, Richibucto, Miramichi, Bathurst and Dalhousie. At Salisbury with Stages to and from Hopewell, Hillsborough, and the Albert Mines. At Amherst with Stages to and from Truro and all parts of Nova Scotia. At St. John with the Western Extension Railway for Fredericton, McAdam Junction, &c.; thence by Stages to Mattawamkeug, connecting there with Maine Division for Bangor, &c.; also connects at St. John with Steamers of the International Steamship Company for Eastport, Portland and Boston.