

SECTION VIII.—Any person taking upon himself the charge of executing any Warrant or Order respecting the performance of Quarantine, or the execution of this Act, who shall wilfully neglect the execution of such Trust, or who shall, by connivance, or openly, suffer the said Act to be evaded or transgressed, to pay a fine of not less than Ten Pounds, nor more than Two Hundred Pounds.

SECTION IX.—Penalties and Forfeitures to be sued for and recovered, and accounted for as His Majesty may direct.

SECTION X.—After the Quarantine may have been duly performed by any Ship or Vessel, and the persons therein shall have conformed to the Proclamation and Orders that may be issued as above-mentioned, and the several Rules and Orders that may in that respect be made under this Act, and upon Proof on oath or otherwise being made thereof to the satisfaction of the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person Administering the Government as aforesaid, in His Majesty's said Executive Council, and that such Ship or Vessel, and all and every the person or persons therein, have duly performed the Quarantine and Orders as aforesaid, and that the Ship or Vessel, and all the persons on board, and the Goods and Merchandize therein are free from infection, then, and in every such case, the Commander, Master, or person having charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall obtain a Passport or discharge from the Quarantine imposed, and the restraints by this Act laid to support the same; and which passport and discharge shall be granted under the Hand and Seal of the said Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person Administering the Government; and shall free the said Ship or Vessel, and all and every person or persons therein and thereunto belonging, and the Goods and Merchandize that may be laden or have been imported in the said Ship and Vessel, from all further restraint or detention during that Voyage, by reason of any matter or thing in this Act contained.

A true Abstract,

C. R. OGDEN,
Solicitor General.

Quebec, 27th September, 1831.