ROSS SCORED BY LIBERAL EX-M.P.

Premier Publicly Charged with Responsibility for Prevailing Political Corruption

The Stinging Indictment Of Ontario Liberalism from the Lips of an Old Friend

Pembroke, Ont., Dec. 11. — Probably the most sensational incident that has ever occurred during a political campaign in Ontario took place here tonight. James Findlay, an ex-Liberal member of the house of commons, appeared at a meeting held in the town hall in the interests of Mr. Hile, and before eight hundred people denounced Premier Ross and the Liberal government in the strongest terms. The meeting was held in the town hall, and the early part of his speech was listened to with great attention. The premier was present, and before he listened to the stinging words from the lips of his old friend, with whom he used to live while attending the house at Ottawa. Plainly and forcibly he was in effect told that he had departed from the traditions of the Liberal party, was largely responsible for the carnival of fraud and corruption that had disgraced Ontario, and for nearly two years had deprived the people of North Renfrew of their rights to representation in the legislature.

Mr. Findlay's speech created a profound impression. He was so obviously in earnest to leave no doubt but that he was inspired by true patriotic motives.

A FORMIDABLE INDICTMENT. A Liberal of the old school, universally esteemed, and with a large following of old friends, his indictment of the government at this critical time will have an effect on North Renfrew that is incalculable.

When the meeting opened Mr. Findlay asked for and was given permission to speak. Quietly and without anger in his voice, he said: "I am here to solemnly protest against the treatment that has been meted out to the people of the Ontario Government in disfranchising us for 80 weeks of the dearly bought privilege of being represented in the councils of our country by men of our own choosing."

"Then, too, corruption is rampant in this province to an extent I have never before known and that corruption can be laid at the doors of the Liberal party. I first met Mr. Ross many years ago. He had already attained a reputation for honesty, and I was drawn to him. But now, I am sorry to say, my opinion has changed. He has become a man of no account."

A death silence followed. The Premier looked uncomfortable, and so did Thomas Mackie, M. P., who accompanied him, and the chairman, Charles Ross, who presided over the meeting.

After a few minutes, the speaker succeeded in saying what he intended. From every indication his remarks have not taken on barren ground.

The Premier's reply was briefly a sweeping denial that the Government had been guilty of any wrong-doing whatever, and an exceedingly lame explanation of the reason for the delay in bringing on the election. The rest of his speech was devoted to an exposition of the Government's policy, and a bitter denunciation of Mr. Gamble.

WARNING TO SPORTS

Complaints have been made to the Game Commissioners that quail and partridge were shot during last winter by boys and others carrying guns ostensibly for shooting rabbits, but in reality for the purpose of shooting anything they came across. The law forbids the shooting of rabbits after Dec. 15th, the closing day for ducks and partridge. No game bird or animal can be shot after Dec. 15th. Rabbits may be killed or taken at any time of year by means of dog, ferret, axe, or other means, but must not be shot except in the open season for shooting, which is from September 15th to December 15th, both days inclusive.

Game Warden F. C. Quillman has been instructed to see that the law as to carrying guns during the close season is enforced. He will make a tour of the country for that purpose as soon as the shooting season closes, viz., Dec. 15th. The law is explicit, and is intended to prevent the carrying of guns during the close season. Section 30 of the act says: "In all actions and prosecutions under this act the possession of guns on other implements of shooting or hunting in or near any water where any game bird or animal has been or is likely to be found, shall be sufficient evidence, prima facie, that the person or persons in possession thereof were hunting or shooting such game bird or animal, and of their intention so to do." Rabbits must take warning and leave their guns at home after Dec. 15th. It is not at all necessary to use a gun in rabbit hunting. The most successful rabbit hunters would not be bothered with a gun. A dog, a ferret, and an axe is their sole stock in trade.

A LIVE ISSUE.

The Macaulay Club decided on Saturday night that the United States were not justified in recognizing the independence of Panama. The debate was a good one, and some strong arguments were put forth on both sides. The question was stated in this way: "Resolved that the United States were justified in recognizing the independence of Panama."

J. S. Lane, H. W. Anderson and J. M. Pike spoke on the affirmative side of the question. Mr. Lane, in opening the debate, gave a splendid historical sketch of the Panama State, from its inception till the present day, and briefly outlined its many revolutions.

J. W. Young led for the negative, assisted by C. E. Beaton, Harry Collins and C. B. Simons, and all made telling addresses against the policy pursued by the United States on this issue.

F. D. Laurie, Vice-President of the club, occupied the judicial chair and gave his decision in favor of the negative. Mr. Laurie very cleverly summed up and held that the weight of argument was with the negative.

J. M. Pike gave a reading, masterfully delivered and thus, Scullard fulfilled the office of critic.

The debate for next Saturday evening is "Resolved that P. T. the Younger, did more for England than Walpole." The leaders are A. E. Jewett and Wilson Taylor. Dr. F. K. Holmes is on the program for an essay.

WILLING WORKERS

The Willing Workers, that admirable society which is doing so much for Holy Trinity Church, met Friday night, and adjourned till after the holidays. The willing workers is an association of the young people of Holy Trinity church, formed under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. T. Beverly Smith, for the purpose of advancing the interests of the church. Their work has been highly successful and many have been interested who could not otherwise have been reached.

At the close of the meeting Friday night, the Rev. T. Beverly Smith made a splendid address, thanking the ladies for their good work and expressing pleasure at the results attained. He pointed out that the principles the society had laid down at the beginning had not been violated. When sales were held down town, they interfered with the legitimate business of the merchants, but the manner in which the sales had been conducted affected the merchants but little and, if it did affect them at all, it was so evenly divided that none of them felt it.

Different articles of use and ornament, the work of the members of the society were offered for sale at the meeting. The society urges no one to buy but those who so desire may do so. Quite a large number of sales were registered, and a neat little sum realized.
