MR. MORGAN.

I. Tour of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales through British America and the United States.—Montreal, 1860.

"The work reflects much credit upon the industrious editor. Here we have preserved what a few years hence will be found nowhere else, a faithful and detailed account of the progress of His Royal Highness Albert Edward through Canada and the United States.—Upper Canada Law Journal."

"This work has been carefully compiled, and reflects credit on its youthful author."—Report of Joint Committee on Library of Canadian Parliament, 1861.

"The best collected account of the Prince's tour we have yet seen."—Toronto Leader.

II. Sketches of Celebrated Canadians, and Persons connected with Canada.—Quebec, 1862. [New edition now (1880) preparing.]

"The volume before us appears at an opportune moment: England is at the present time watching the national policy of Canada with increasing interest. The names of her leading public men are now familiar to many as household words, and in view of probable events arising out of the Civil War in the neighboring States, we are glad of the opportunity afforded by Mr. Morgan of knowing something more of those men in whose hands the future of the Province, humanly speaking, is entrusted. As a work of reference on all matters Canadian, Mr. Morgan's volume is invaluable, and from the very flattering reception it has met with at the hands of the press on the other side of the Atlantic, we have no doubt of its becoming one of our standard biographical dictionaries"—London (Eng.) Canadian News.

"Readers who wish to see a compendious account of the progress of this great colony from the time when Jacques Cartier sailed up the St. Lawrence, with the wild romantic dangers and adventures of the first explorers, to the account of the distinguished journalists and novelists and litterateurs of the present day, may find this wide track of time and change spanned over in the present volume."—London Athenæum.

III. The Canadian Parliamentary Companion (established in 1862 and published annually by Mr. Morgan up to 1876; since continued by Mr. C. H. Mackintosh.)

"The COMPANION contains a most extraordinary amount of information, given with neatness, correctness and conciseness. The great experience which Mr. Morgan has acquired while compiling the former editions, has been brought to bear upon this (1875), and the result has been the production of a work which might well serve as a standard for any similar undertaking."—Scottish American.
