"A Friend to all Civil and Religious Liberty. He has done justice to the talents and character of the Reformers, and evinced much industry and impartiality in examining the authorities from which he has taken his materials."—McCrie's Life of John Knox.

Titus Oates' Plot. A scarce and valuable collection relating to and bearing on this celebrated conspiracy. 1109

The Trial of Nathaniel Reading, Esq., for attempting to stifle the King's evidence as to the HORRID PLOT, at King's Bench, Westminster, on 24th April, 1679, to be fined £1,000, imprisoned for one year, and to be set in the pillory on Monday next following—Lon. 1679. The Information of William Lewis, Gent., delivered at the Bar of the House of Commons, Nov. 18th, 1680; with his further narrative and a confirmation of the Popish Plot, and the justice of the executions done upon Grove, Pickering, and the Jesuits for the design of killing his Most Sacred Majesty—Lon. 1680. The character of a Popish Successor, complete—Lon. 1681. Mr. Tho. Dangerfield's particular Narrative of the late Popish design to charge those of the Presbyterian party with a pretended conspiracy, etc.—Lon. 1679. The Narrative of Robert Jenison, containing confirmation of the late Horrid and Treasonable Popish Plot: The names of the four Russians designed to have murdered the King, etc.—Lon. 1679. The Information of Robert Jenison, Esq., delivered at the Bar of the House of Commons—Lon. 1680. The Information of Stephen Dugdale, Gent., delivered at the Bar of the House of Commons, on Nov. 1st, 1680—Lon. 1680. The further Information of Stephen Dugdale—Lon. 1680. Discourses on the present state of the Protestant Princes of Europe, etc., wherein the general scope of this Horrid Popish Plot is laid down and presented to public view by Ed. Everard—Lon. 1679. Mr. Prince's Answer to Mrs. Cellier's Libel and divers other Popish scandals, etc., to which is now added the Adventure of the Bloody Bladder, etc.—Lon. 1680. The Papists' Bloody Oath of Secrecy and Setany of intercession for the carrying on of the present Plot, with the manner of taking the oath upon their entering into any grand conspiracy against the Protestants; with further information relating to the Plot and Murder of Lamundbury Godfrey—Lon. 1680. Narrative of the Wicked Plots carried on by Signior Gondomoro for advancing the Popish Religion and Spanish Faction; by Richard Dugdale, Gent.—Lon. 1679. An Exact and True Narrative of the late Popish Intrigue to form a plot and then to cast the guilt and odium upon the Protestants, faithfully collected by Col. Roderick Mansell—Lon. 1680. Narrative of Unheard of Popish Cruelties towards Protestants beyond Seas; or a new account of the Bloody Spanish Inquisition, published as a caveat to Protestants; by Mr. Dugdale—Lon. 1680. Elymas the Sorcerer; or a memorial towards the discovery of the bottom of the Popish Plot, etc. The English Guzman; or Cap. Hilton's Memoirs, with several other of the grand informers—Lon. 1683. The Trial of Edward Coleman, Gent., for conspiring the Death of the King and the subversion of the Government of England and the Protestant Religion, and found guilty of High Treason, and received sentence accordingly, viz., 28th Nov., 1678; he was drawn on a sledge from Newgate to Tyburn, hanged by the neck, cut down alive, his bowels burnt, and himself quartered. The Narrative of Mr. John Smith, containing a further discovery of the late Horrid and Popish Plot—Lon. 1697. A collection of Letters and other writings relating to the Horrid Popish Plot, printed from the originals in the hands of George Tanby,

Esq., chairman of the Committee of Secrecy of the Honourable House of Commons, in 2 parts—Lon. 1816. The Character of a Popish Successor, and what England may expect from such a one—Lon. 1681. An Impartial Account of Remarkable Proceedings of the last Sessions of Parliament, relating to the Popish Plot.

Such a collection of the above would be considered a prize of the greatest rarity in England, and has certainly not been offered for sale in Canada previously. They are all folio size, and some extend to above 100 pages, are in good condition, and mostly uncut edges; and we trust they will be purchased and preserved by some public library. $10.
