FEAST OF ST. ELIZABETH.

The sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis will celebrate the feast of their patroness, St. Elizabeth of Hungary, on Monday, November 19.

To Prevent is Better Than to Repent.—A little medicine in the shape of the wonderful pellets which are known as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, administered at the proper time and with the directions adhered to, often prevent a serious attack of sickness and save money which would go to the doctor.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOME.

As we promised last week, we present our readers with a list of subscriptions to the Pount Party given last week at the Home. It will be seen that the donations, as usual, were not all from Montreal, and that St. Joseph depends more on the loyalty than on the well-to-do for the support of his little institution.

pond sterling; Mrs. McCormick's two dollars, 3 lbs. biscuits; Mrs. McArthur, one dollar, coffee and tea; Miss McAndrew, one dollar; Mrs. McCauley, one dollar and 2 lbs tea; Mary McManus, 1 lb. tea and cake; Mrs. McBrine, 1 lb. sugar; Miss McCaffrey, soap; Rosa McCarthy, 3 lbs. flour; Mrs. M. McCready, 1 doz. oranges; Miss A. McCready, 1 lb. coffee, 1 lb. brawn; Mrs. McCarthy, 5 lbs. soap; Mrs. McCormack, one dollar; Mrs. McCafferty, 10 lb. sugar; Michael and Edward McBrine, each one lb. coffee and spoons and ten cents; Mrs. Nagle, parcel clothing; John O'Brien, one dollar; Ald. T. O'Connell sent a receipted bill for all the work done in the Home for the past two years and for the different kitchen utensils, locks and hardware furnished since the beginning; the bill was a little over twenty-five dollars; this means a present of just that amount; John O'Neill and Rev. Father O'Meara, each one pound sterling; the Misses O'Neill, two dollars; Mrs. O'Reilly, one dollar; Mrs. D. J. O'Grady, 1 lb. tea, 5 lbs. sugar; Miss A. O'Connor, biscuits; Miss R. Paterson, 5 bags salt; Mrs. Prescott, two dollars; Mrs. Prendergast, one dollar; Wm. Ryan, two dollars; Mrs. W. Ryan, two dollars; Miss M. Rowan, shirting; I. Reddy, 3 bags salt; Mrs. Reilly, 5 lbs. sugar, 1 lb. tea; Annie Reed, eggs; Maggie Reddy and sister, sugar and biscuits; Stella Reed, tea; Rev. Father Sammons, Birmingham, Eng., one pound sterling; Mrs. Shanahan, three dollars; Mrs. M. Scullion, one dollar; sugar, tea; Mrs. Dr. Schmidt, tea, cocoa, figs and preserves; Stella Simpson, and Mrs. P. Sheridan, each 1 lb. tea; Mary Slattery, 1 lb. sugar; May Simpson, 1 lb. sugar; May Stuart, pkg. rolled oats; Mrs. Sherry, Young street, a ham; Miss Shery, 2 lbs. tea, 1 lb. coffee; Mrs. D. Shanahan, 1 box sodas; Agnes Sweeney, a quilt; Master J. Sweeney, shirting; Bridget Shea, biscuits and tea; The True Witness, 300 invitation cards; J. Tangher, box sweets; Miss Taylor, 10 lbs. sugar; Miss Tobin, bag potatoes, 2 lbs. tea, 5 lbs. sugar; Rose Ward, for the employees of J. M. Fortier, three dollars; Miss P. A. Warren, pkg. sugar; Mrs. M. J. Walsh, one pound sterling; Mrs. Wolfrath, New York, one pound sterling; Annie Wilkinson, one dollar; Mrs. Welch, salt and soap; Mary A. Welsh, syrup and coffee; Jennie Weir, a pkg. sugar.

Miss Brennan says that she will make up some of the soap and sugar into poultices and apply them to the pockets of a few of the rich people of her acquaintance, so as to place the exchequer in a position to buy a house, then the Home will rest on its own ground. If fifty generous people would subscribe $100 each, a nice place might be bought nearer to the business district, and the number of working boys would be increased, and at the same time the usefulness of the home. On reading the above list of donations it will be seen that Father Holland's venture is being encouraged by those who appreciate it. There are enough provisions in the larder now to last till the next pound party, and we trust that the kind matrons will not be shy in announcing it. Many complained that they knew nothing of the affair until all was over, but those people do not take the True Witness, and for more reasons than one, they should. Father Holland wishes to thank sincerely all who have made the Pound Party a success. Whether their names appear in this article or not, their reward is before them in Heaven.

ACCOMMODATION IN ST. PATRICK'S BOYS SCHOOL INADEQUATE.

The Rev. Martin Callaghan has served a report on the Catholic School Commissioners in which he stated that lack of accommodation—dearth of classrooms and teachers—in St. Patrick's Boys' School has obliged the authorities to turn away hundreds of boys seeking admission. There exists an agreement between the Seminary of St. Sulpice and St. Patrick's parish that the number of teachers cannot be increased unless the expense is borne by the parish. Fr. Callaghan stated that the Seminary had kindly consented to advance money for necessary improvements, providing the Board would accept the St. Patrick's Boys' School on conditions similar to that which were obtained by St. Ann's Boys' School. It was pointed out that the St. Patrick's Boys' School building, which cost $48,000, was sufficiently large to provide sufficient accommodation, if the six apartments now used for residential purposes could be utilized for class rooms. This could only be done by providing a new residence for the Brothers. The pastor said that while the parishioners were willing to lend their assistance in the erection of such a residence, they considered it only fair, in view of their extensive contributions to the school tax fund, that the board should allow them a larger share in the location of these taxes and that the board should also help in providing better accommodation for St. Patrick's School. The matter was referred to the finance committee for consideration.

The Seminary of St. Sulpice offered to turn over to the board the site of St. Joseph's School for the construction of a new building which is badly needed, on the conditions that the new edifice remain in the parish of St. Joseph and that the teaching remain under the control of the order. Commissioner Vallieres moved that this offer be accepted, but Commissioner Martineau proposed by way of amendment that the board be not obliged to provide a hall in the new edifice for the benefit of the fabrique of the parish, that nothing be so arranged as to make the control of tuition in the school by the order perpetual, and that the board have power to take the school under its absolute control upon the payment of an indemnity to the Sulpicians. Commissioner Piche and other members of the board pronounced themselves in favor of this amendment. Both the motion and the amendment were, however, voted down in favor of a suggestion of Commissioner Semple, referring the settlement of this matter to a special committee which will confer with the authorities of the Seminary of St. Sulpice.

'Tis a Marvellous Thing.—When the cures effected by Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil are considered, the speedy and permanent relief it has brought to the suffering wherever it has been used, it must be regarded as a marvellous thing that so potent a medicine should result from the six simple ingredients which enter into its composition. A trial will convince the most skeptical of its healing virtues.

OBITUARY.

MR. MICHAEL FERON. The death occurred on Sunday last of Mr. Michael Feron, advocate, after a long illness. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning to St. Patrick's Church, where a solemn requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Luke Callaghan, assisted by Rev. J. Cox, S.J., and Rev. G. McShane as deacon and sub-deacon respectively. Rev. Canon Roy, assisted by Rev. Martin Callaghan, received the remains.

MR. FRANCIS DUNN. Mr. Francis Dunn, of St. Joachim de Shefford, died at his home on Oct. 24, after a year's illness, at the venerable age of 81 years. The late Mr. Dunn was born in Maryborough, Queen's Co., Ireland, on March 7, 1825, and came to Canada in 1844, with his parents and two brothers, Mr. John Dunn, who died in May, 1883, and Mr. Peter Dunn, who died in May, 1905. He was therefore the last member of his family. Three years after their arrival, Mr. Dunn and parents settled on the farm which has since descended to the 3rd generation, and is today owned by his son, Mr. Charles Dunn.

The subject of this sketch was a man of sterling worth, a kind neighbor, a true friend, and good citizen, who was universally esteemed and who has left to his children that priceless heritage—a good name. On Oct. 23, fifty years ago, Mr. Dunn was married to Miss Julia Quinlan, an accomplished young lady who was 12 years younger than he, but who predeceased him 27 years, leaving him a family of small children. The work he then found before him was no light task, but to a man who had devoted his whole life to others and whose father, mother and brother had breathed their last in his arms, no sacrifice was too great, and with true Christian courage he took care of his children through the long years from infancy to manhood with a love that seemed only to grow deeper and stronger as the years went by, and which was fully returned by the six sons who survive from his family of ten sons and two daughters.

The funeral was held at the parish church, and was a worthy tribute to his memory. Upwards of 60 teams formed the procession. Solemn high Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Callaghan. The bearers were four sons of deceased. Mr. H. Ingram was

HER ONLY REQUEST. A lady complained to the milkman of the quality of milk he sold her. "Well, mum," said the milkman, "the cows don't get enough grass feed this time of the year. Why, them cows are just as sorry about it as I am. I often see 'em cryin'—regular cryin', mum—because they feel as how their milk don't do 'em credit. Don't you believe it, mum?" "Oh, yes, I believe it," responded his customer; "but I wish in future you'd see that they don't drop their tears into our can."
