"I Can't Afford It"

is the excuse often given for not insuring one's life. Should this have been your excuse it is the best possible evidence that you cannot afford to be without insurance. If it is true that you cannot afford any of your income with which to insure your life now, how could your family spare all of your income after you are gone?

No matter what else you have to do without, it is an act of supreme folly to remain without life insurance.

Mrs. Euphemie Chinoquy, widow of Rev. Charles Chinoquy, of Montreal, who attracted considerable attention many years ago by withdrawing from the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a priest, and devoting the remainder of his life to an attack on that faith, died here November 2nd, at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. Samuel C. Delagneau. Mrs. Chinoquy was 77 years of age. She was a native of the Province of Quebec and after the death of her husband in Montreal, a few years ago, she came to Worcester to live with her daughter.

BLACHFORD

On St. Michael's Day a most generous anonymous gift of £6,000 was received by the Rector of Slough towards the completion of the Parish Church of St. Mary. In the year 1875 a determined effort was made to rid the parish of a very unsightly building which had been erected in 1835. Under the guidance of Mr. John Oldrid Scott the chancel, transepts, and one bay of the nave were erected at a cost of £12,500. Not until 1907 was any further attempt made to complete the structure. Then funds were collected, and during this year three bays of the nave have been built at a cost of £4,400. Just as this section of the work was nearing completion, this anonymous gift was received. It is intended that this sum should not only complete the nave, but also suffice to build the tower and spire. The parish only a few months ago received two other large anonymous gifts, the one for the rebuilding of the Church Institute, whereby a central hall capable of holding 450 people, is nearly completed, and the other for the purpose of increasing the clerical staff.
