

and hereditaments, held in coparcenary, joint tenancy or tenancy in common, shall be effected by the Court of Chancery according to the practice and proceedings established or to be established in that Court.

be effected by the Court of Chancery according to the practice of that Court.

II. And be it enacted, That in case any of the parties to any proceeding in the said Court of Chancery for a partition, shall be infants under the age of twenty one years, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to appoint a guardian or guardians ad litem for such infant, in like manner as such guardians may be appointed in any other suit in the said Court.

Court may appoint guardians ad litem when any of the parties are under age.

III. And be it enacted, That the decree of the said Court, whereby any part or portion of lands, tenements or hereditaments, held in coparcenary, joint tenancy or tenancy in common shall be decreed to any coparcener, joint tenant, or tenant in common, in severalty, shall operate and be effectual to convey and transfer to such coparcener, joint tenant, or tenant in common all and singular the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand of all and every other of the coparceners, joint tenants, or tenants in common, as such interested therein, as well infants and feme coverts as others, being parties to such proceeding, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been conveyed and transferred by deed or conveyance, duly signed, sealed and delivered by such other coparceners, joint tenants and tenants in common, and duly proved or acknowledged, and registered in the County where such part or portion of the lands may lie, and in the case of infants in like manner as if such infants were at the time of full age; Provided always, That such decree shall have been first duly signed and enrolled, and registered in the Office of Register of Deeds of the County where the lands may lie, according to the provisions hereinafter contained.

Decree of the Court signed, sealed, and registered to convey the lands, &c. decreed to any coparcener as effectually as a conveyance from the other coparceners.

IV. And be it enacted, That any decree of the said Court of Chancery, having been first duly signed and enrolled, may be registered in the Office of the Register of Deeds for any County in like manner and order, as any deed or conveyance, upon production to the Register of Deeds of a copy thereof, with a certificate indorsed thereupon, of the Registrar of the Court of Chancery, under the seal of the said Court, that the same is a true copy of a decree of the said Court, and that the same has been duly signed and enrolled; and the Register of Deeds shall indorse upon such copy a certificate of such registry in like manner as is required by law, in respect of any deed or conveyance duly registered, and for his services in that behalf shall be entitled to the like fees and emoluments as are provided in the case of the registry of deeds and conveyances; and such copy of such decree with such certificates thereon shall be evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity in this Province, of such decree and of such registering thereof, and a copy from the County Registry of such decree, duly certified by the Register of Deeds shall be admitted in evidence in such cases and under such rules and restrictions as a copy of a registered deed taken from such County Register would be so admitted.

Decree may be registered in the County Registry.
