Orders have been received from headquarters of the 3rd divisional area by the officers commanding units here to urge recruiting as much as possible for the new battalion. There will be no change in the recruiting here as the work of enlistment has been carried on with much enthusiasm by the recruiting officers. The dogs, which were mascots of the men of the 39th Battalion, have taken up with the few soldiers now boarding at the hotels in town. The khaki is the only color for them. It is just possible that Belleville may within a short time be the mobilizing centre for another body of troops.
