WOMEN DON'T WEEP NOW

Broader Outlook on Life Banishing Tears

One of the most interesting and significant phases of the evolution of woman is that she is ceasing to weep, writes Dorothy Dix, in the Cleveland Leader. I do not know science explains it, but it is a self-evident fact that every observing person must have noted that as women have developed backbone their tear ducts have dried up.

Time was and not so long ago when the very name of the feminine sex was synonymous with crying. It was woman's hereditary destiny to weep, just as it was man's to work, and she did what was expected of her by sitting down and howling whenever she came up against any of the propositions of life.

The modern woman has changed all of that. You hardly ever see a woman weep now. There are—God help us—just as many things to wring a woman's heart to-day, and just as many causes for tears as there ever were, but if she weeps she weeps in private. It is almost as unusual and startling now to see a woman give way publicly to emotion as it is to see a man doing so, and I can think of no other one thing that so emphatically marks the progress of my sex.

It measures all the distance between hysteria and reason. It marks the immeasurable difference between the spoiled child crying impudently for forbidden sweets, and the stroped adult who takes what life gives with unflinching bravery and cheerfulness. The trouble with women's tears in the past has been that they wept too much and in the wrong way. A tear as a tear is as ineffective as any other drop of salt water, yet people make the mistake of reverencing it as if weeping over a thing was going to perform some kind of a miracle.

You might weep over a starving family until you shed an ocean of tears, yet it would keep them from perking of hunger. It is only when you begin to sob with your pocket-book that you do any good. It isn't the people who come to weep with us when we are unfortunate and poor and downcast who help us. It is those who have learned to sympathize with their bank book and personal interest and assistance.

Sentimentalists have embalm'd a mother's tears in song and story, and made them sacred, but I tell you the tears of a mother shed over an ill-raised son or daughter are shameful. There should be no cause for them, and there would be no cause for them, once in a million times, if she had done her duty. Weep with strict authority, mothers, sob with a wise up-bringing while your children are little, and when they are grown you will not have to shed salt and bitter tears over sons and daughters who have brought disgrace upon you.

It has also appeared to me—that women have wasted quite an unnecessary amount of tears over their husbands. For a thousand generations wives have clung to the theory that a man could be wept into all the virtues of a beatitude. When a woman had a drunken husband she opened the door for him in the early hours of the morning, and bedewed him with her tears. When she had a brutal one she wept when the mistreated her, but she forgave him and let him go on doing it.

Any way you look at it, it is a hopeful sign when have abandoned doing the baby act.

KIDNEY TROUBLE IS HEREDITARY

Dresden Man, Who Inherited Trouble Finds Speedy Relief and Permanent Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

DRESDEN, Ont., June 16.—(Special)—Whether kidney disease is hereditary or not is a matter of opinion. Mr. Samuel Burkett a well known resident of this place is convinced that he inherited his from his parents. He knows that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured it.

"I inherited my Kidney Disease from my parents," Mr. Burkett states. "I was treated by a doctor, and tried various medicines, but it was not until about eighteen months ago, when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills that I got any permanent relief.

"Since then I have not felt any effect of my old trouble, and I feel that anybody troubled with kidney disease will be benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills if they follow directions closely.

"I hope that others may be helped by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I am well-known here, and anybody who wishes more particulars of my cure can have them by writing me and enclosing stamps for reply."

Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to cure any form of kidney disease.

LORD STRATHCONA'S GRANDDAUGHTER
Married to Lieut. James Buller Kitson, of the Navy.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught sent a large silver-mounted mirror as a wedding gift to Miss Frances Margaret Frances Howard, who was married on Saturday at St. Mark's Church, North Audley-street, to Lieut. James Buller Kitson, R.N., and the happy couple also received a large silver cup from the Landgrave of Hesse.

Lieutenant R. F. Eyre, R.N., acted best man, and at the conclusion of the ceremony a large reception was held at Lord Strathcona's house in Grosvenor-square. Later in the afternoon Lieut. and Mrs. James Kitson left for Scotland for their honeymoon.

Among the many handsome wedding presents were a diamond necklace, the gift of Lady and Lady Strathcona, a pair of diamond earrings to the bride from her mother, and a complete set of china from Mr. Howard. Presentations were also received from tenants and employees (Argyllshire), Deben Hall (Saffron Walden), and the household servants in London.

BIG SHOW TO-MORROW

Barnum and Bailey's Greatest Circus Will Arrive During the Night WILL PRESENT NEW PRADE

Big Spectacle of "Cleopatra" Begins Regular Performance—Performance at 2 and 8 o'clock.

The Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will arrive in Brantford during the small hours of tonight. The first of the five long trains is expected soon after midnight. It will come to the hotel, and kitchen outfit. The other trains will follow it closely. The menagerie and parade will come on the second section. On the third will come the vast equipment of the spectacle of "Cleopatra," the portable stage, the tons of scenery, thousands of costly costumes and carloads of stage properties and electric devices. The fourth section will bring the ring properties, the shops, the canvas, horses and draft wagons. The performers and business staff live on the last train, which is made up entirely of Pullman coaches.

Already visitors from afar have begun to arrive in the city, and the indications point to a record in circus days. Those who desire to avoid the crowds on the grounds can buy reserved seats and admissions at the downtown branch box office, which will be conducted in Wade's Music Store. Prices there will be the same as at the regular ticket wagons.

The program under the big tent will be one of great novelty. It is presented by European talent, new to America. There is a world of thrillers.
