CIVIC PAYMENTS

The payments of the various civic departments for the two weeks ending Aug. 21, are as follows: Cemetries, $73.80; sewers, $310.53; streets, $1,608.70; street watering, and oiling, $119.19.

DOG LICENSES

The attention of the civic license committee is called by the city treasurer to an apparent defect in the by-law regarding dog licenses, whereby no provision is made for refund of any part of the fee paid in case of the death of the dog. Mr. Bunnell quotes one instance where a license was taken out in July last, and the dog was killed within the last week. Application for refund of the license fee has been made, but he (Mr. Bunnell) has no power to grant the same.

TRANSFER OF STORES

Capt. Scott of the headquarters staff, Toronto, was in the city yesterday conducting the transfer of the equipment of the 32nd Battery C.P.A. from Capt. W. T. Henderson, now going overseas as C.O. 54th Battery, C. E. F., to Lt. E. J. Chevens, formerly Q. M. Sgt., upon the recommendation of Major-General Logie. Lieut. Chevens has been connected with the battery here since its formation, and has recruited a large number of men for overseas. He will assume temporary command of the 32nd.

WINS D.C.M.

Word from Toronto to-day stated that Lt. C. K. Hoag, of that city, had been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal, as a reward for having made "several reconnoissances by trying and dangerous conditions and obtaining valuable information." Lieutenant Hoag is an old Brantford boy, the son of J. P. Hoag, now of Toronto, at one time a teacher at the Collegiate Institute. He was wounded while in action only a very short time ago.

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL

A special session of the township council was held this morning in the office of the township clerk.

IS BETTER

Word received to-day is to the effect that the condition of Dean Brady shows some slight improvement.

DID DAMAGE

The thunderstorm, of which Brantford secured the edge yesterday, raged with great fury in Hamilton. Many places were struck.

COUNTY COUNCIL

A special meeting of the county council was held this afternoon, when matters relating to the future administration of the Patriotic Fund to residents of the county were discussed.

HEARING APPEALS

His Honor Judge Hardy will sit on Monday next for the purpose of hearing appeals against assessments confirmed by the township court of revision upon the properties of the Brantford Municipal Railway, the Lake Erie and Northern Railway and the Brantford Golf Club.

REMOVING SIGNS

A number of large recruiting signs of the 125th battalion, which had remained standing in the parks of the city and other prominent positions ever since the departure of the unit from this city, were yesterday removed, as the 125th has now reached England and is no longer engaged in recruiting.

FALSE ALARM
ARTIST ARRESTED

In Police Court This Morning and Remanded Until Monday.

Acting upon information furnished them by persons who had witnessed the scene, Sergeant Wallace and Constable Klinger yesterday arrested J. Rowley, alias J. Johnson, on the charge of having turned in three false alarms to the central fire department on Sunday night last. Rowley was arraigned in the police court this morning, but his case received an adjournment until next week.

For supplying a billed man with liquor, Wm. A. Pyle paid $25 and costs. A drunk contributed one and two motorists, five sinners, for speeding, the costs being also paid in one case. A charge of conversion against Thomas Lawrence was adjourned until tomorrow, and a similar one preferred against Lee Woon dismissed. Joseph Partik charged Harry Folger with assault, causing wounding, and the case was adjourned until Monday.

NEWS NOTES

Col. A. E. Ross, C.M.G., of Kingston, with the Canadian Medical Service at the front, writes that the medical work is improving all the time, that there is not one-third the sickness that there was a year ago. The Canadian government steamer, Montmagny, which has been beneath the waters of the St. Lawrence near the island of Orleans for almost a year, has been sold by public tender to the St. Charles Navigation Company, of Quebec, for $25,000.

215TH ENVY OF
NIAGARA CAMP

Capt. McKegney, Chaplain Battalion Tells of Life Down There.

MEN ARE IN FINE CONDITION.

Presentation of Colors on Saturday Next Will Be Big Event.

"The 215th battalion," said Capt. McKegney this morning, "is the envy of the entire camp, because of the thorough organization which exists in every department of service to the men; particularly in the manner in which provision is made for the social side of the battalion's life. Our big cantina is the scene of almost nightly gatherings, when moving pictures are shown and impromptu concerts staged. The men take part, and occasionally ladies of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew join in the entertainments.

Sunday Services
"On Sunday communion service for the battalion is conducted at 7.45 a.m. in the lines of the 215th. At 9 a.m. the regular camp service is held, conducted usually by the camp chaplain, Major Drummond. In the evening, service for the 215th is again conducted in the canteen tent. Last Sunday evening it was crowded, every seat taken, and many men standing throughout. Among those present were Lt.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, Major Snider and other officers. The hymns sung were flashed upon the screen by means of a projecting lantern, and all joined with a will in singing. As the battalion chaplain, I delivered a sermon, and at the conclusion of the service the entire gathering, standing and with arms and bowed heads, united in prayer for their country, the soldiers and sailors, the ill and wounded, and those at home.

Camp Life Enjoyable
"The weather during the past two weeks has, of course, been hot, but a fresh breeze from the lake is a most improvement, and the open life also adds to the comfort of the men, who do not feel the heat nearly so much as they would do in the city. Everyone is in good health, and the kitchen, though it is considered a soldier's privilege to grouse—is so far and few between as to be almost non-existent.

The Presentation of Colors
"The ceremony on Saturday morning next, when the battalion will be presented with colors, will be a most impressive one and should be seen by all. The presentation will be made by the Misses Margaret and Isabel Cockshutt, the daughters of the late Col. and the dedication by His Grace Bishop Williams, of Huron. The ceremony will take place in the afternoon off, in order to entertain the visitors who may come from the city for the occasion. As special trains are being run, leaving Brantford at 7 in the morning, it is an advantage of by all. The tickets are good until Monday, so that all will be enabled to remain over for a big concert being held Saturday night in the canteen tent. His Grace Bishop Williams of Huron, will probably address the gathering at the camp service on Sunday morning, and it is expected that he will speak at the evening service of the 215th.

Promotions Expected
"It is expected that there will be a number of promotions in the Battalion before long, though nothing definite is known as to this. A call has been issued from military headquarters, asking for volunteers from the 215th, with the rank of lieutenant, to go immediately overseas. This is in view of the recent heavy casualties, and the need of replenishing battalions now at the front with junior officers.

Visitors Looked for Saturday
"That is about all the news from Niagara. Capt. Ferguson has obtained a new tent for the quarter-master's stores, and every soldier is in first class shape. We are looking for a large number of visitors on Saturday. Saturday is always the best time for visitors to come to the camp as the men always have the afternoon off, and are able to show them around. Other days the men are busy at their drills all day, and of course cannot be excused from duty. Visiting the camp, all, however, who come next Saturday, or any Sunday, indeed, will be assured of a hearty welcome and a fine time at the camp."
