CAPT. GEORGE L. HOLMES

The death of Captain George L. Holmes took place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Clark, Kentville, on Thursday, April 16th, after an illness of pneumonia.

Captain Holmes was born in Hantsport 85 years ago, where he resided on the homestead until about a year ago, when he removed to Kentville. He married Miss Mary Beckwith, of Hantsport, who died four years ago. The surviving children are A. R. Holmes, of Toronto; George A., Philadelphia; Mrs. W. W. Clark, Kentville.

Captain Holmes followed the sea for many years, beginning at the age of ten. He was for some time master of vessels for the J. B. North Co., afterwards sailing from Glasgow, Scotland, for Black & Co. He commanded the ship "Queen Victoria", which was one of the finest of this company's fleet of vessels. The late Captain Holmes was a member of the Hantsport Baptist church, and for many years a Deacon and Trustee. He was always a public spirited man, taking an intelligent interest in everything that was for the public welfare.

DIARY OF SIMEON MICHENER

Sunday, May 26th, 1850. Black River, Ohio. This is a small place, with a few scattering houses. We left Buffalo on Monday evening and after a few pleasant days on the lake arrived here Thursday. I discharged what we had, and began to take in cargo yesterday. It is beautiful weather. Night before last I took a walk along the bank of the river, and I thought how pleasant it must be to live ashore; a sailor's life as a general thing is a hard one; he sees the most profane language.

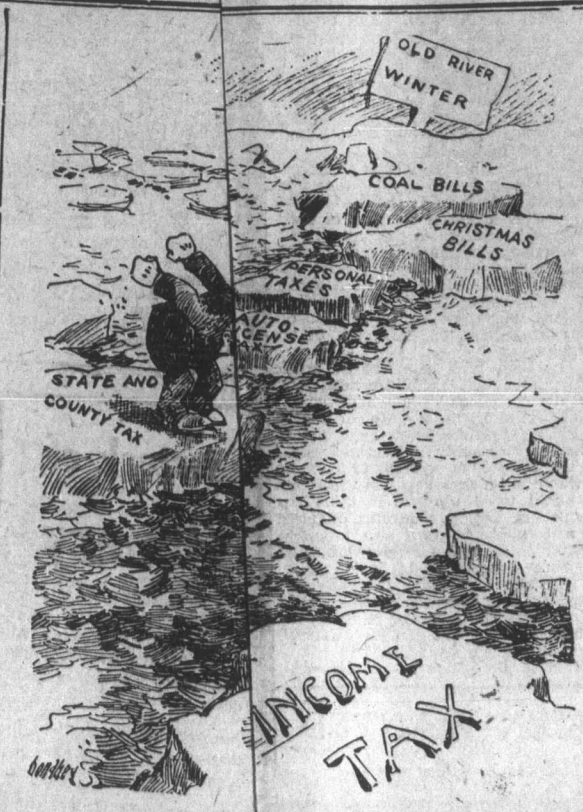

River on Tuesday, met with an accident, as the harbor is very narrow and we were running with a good deal of sail, a steamboat backing out from the wharf caused us to run into a canal boat and damaged her some. Parted our bobstays and chain. The weather is very dry here and the people are fearing a drought.

4th. Left the "Henry Clay" today and engaged passage on the Canadian steamer "Despatch". Left Buffalo at 8 o'clock, intending at land at Port Burwell, C. W.

5th. Stopped this morning at Port Dover to land and take in passengers; arrived at Port Burwell at one p.m. After stopping at several places along the shore, we left our things at the Royal Exchange and walked back to the little village of Vienna. This is a rather pretty little place and beautifully situated in the valley alongside of the river. We returned to the port and stayed all night.

6th. Started this morning and walked out to McBanes, through what is called the Nova Scotia Settlement. The road on either side is beautiful, rich fields and fine orchards present a fine appearance, but the homes are inferior and in many places denote negligence. Stopped this night at Mr. Cahoon's.

7th. This morning, though hot and sultry, started and walked to Sparta. Saw some fine fields of grain and clover; passed through a dense forest of pines and some maples. Arrived at Sparta at one o'clock and was kindly received by —Dory in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mr. Gunn, whether we had been dining at Sparta, is a small village surrounded by a fine farming country. The inhabitants are mostly Quakers.

9th. After tarrying to Sparta all today, started and walked down to Banes, a fine rain having fallen in the morning which laid the dust and cleared the roads better than when we went. This afternoon, heavy thunder showers, which were much needed, as it has in very dry a long time. Stopped in night again at Mr. Cahoon's.

10th. Walked down to the port in morning and went aboard the steamer at ten o'clock for Buffalo; stopped at Dover at 5 o'clock. This is a pretty little village, apparently surrounded by a beautiful country. Left at 7 o'clock.

11th. Arrived this morning in Buffalo at 4 o'clock, went round to the steamerboat and engaged a passage to Racine, Wisconsin, in the "A. D. Pate".

For Baby's Bath

More than that of any other member of the family, baby's tender, delicate skin needs the greatest care and attention. The soft soothing oils in Baby's Own Soap make it specially suitable for babies, and its clinging fragrance reminds one of the roses of France which help to inspire it.

CONCERT IN AID OF SYDNEY RELIEF WAS GREAT SUCCESS

The concert in aid of the Sydney relief presented to the Sydney houses in the Empire Theatre, last Thursday evening, under the auspices of the I.V.C. girls' club, and the "Maples", the boys' basketball team, was one of the best ever staged in Hantsport. The splendid artistry in stage setting and costume could not very well be excelled. Mrs. Geo. Kewley, director, and her staff of helpers, who labored so zealously for the success of the entertainment, are deserving of great commendation, while Miss Claire McDonald and Mr. B. C. Silver, of Wolfville, at the piano, left nothing to be desired.

We would like to specialize on each number but space will not permit. However special mention should be made of the cornet solos by Harold Phinney, the "boy wonder" cornetist of Wolfville, who exhibited great skill by his clever rendition of selections, receiving tumultuous applause. We predict a brilliant future for this clever musician. The program was as follows:

- Chorus—"O Canada".
- Flower Drill.
- Basketball chorus.
- Cornet solo—"Chum's Polka"—Harold Phinney.
- Solo—"Shipmates of Mine"—Mr. Arthur Organ.
- Pianoforte duet—"Poet and Peasant", from William Tell—Misses Claire McDonald and Jean Murray.
- Chorus—"Follow the Swallow".
- Reading—"Onesome Like"—Miss Dorothy Swaine.
- Solo—"The Trumpeter"—Mr. Hartley.
- Chorus—"In the Garden of Tomorrow"—(solo by Miss Aileen Yeaton).
- Solo—"Trusting Eyes"—Mr. Hartley.
- Cornet solo—"Merchant of Venice" with variations—Harold Phinney.
- Chorus—"Nightingale".
- Solo—"Song of the Pirate"—Arthur Organ.
- Chorus—"Memory Lane".

The sum of $70.00 was realized for the Cape Breton sufferers.

Can't Keep House Without Minard's

C. E. Wright of Foxboro, Mass., writes as follows:
"Will you please advise me how I can get your liniment. I can't keep house without Minard's. We were never without it in our home in Nova Scotia. Minard's is splendid for sprains, bruises, rheumatism, colds, etc."
