

WINNIPEG MAN HAS GAINED 35 POUNDS

All His Troubles Were Overcome By Taking Tanlac—Feels Fine Now

"I don't believe there is a man in the world who has been helped by Tanlac more than I have, and if it was possible I would go out and tell everybody personally what this medicine has done for me," said E. J. Coleman, a well known painter and decorator who lives at 195 Michigan Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

"After an attack of double pneumonia about a year ago," he continued, "I got out of bed almost a wreck, was so weak I could hardly stand up, couldn't walk by myself, and now since I have taken Tanlac I have gained thirty-five pounds and feel so well and strong that it seems more like a dream than anything else for such a remarkable change to come over a man."

"My stomach was in a awful condition and I suffered so with indigestion that I ate hardly enough to keep alive. My nerves were completely shattered, and just to show you how nervous I was—a friend walked up behind me one day and slapped me on the back and I almost collapsed and he had to catch me to keep me from falling. It was out of the question for me to sleep at night, and sometimes my nerves would be on edge so bad that I was even afraid to be alone in the dark and I couldn't stay in a room by myself. My kidneys were out of order and nearly all the time I had a pain across the small of my back, and I lost so much weight that I actually looked like a frame."

"One day my folks brought me a bottle of Tanlac, but I didn't want to take it because I had taken so many medicines that had done me no good that I was discouraged and didn't care whether I ever took any more medicine or not. But they insisted so that I finally consented to take it, and to my complete surprise I commenced feeling better right away, and by the time I had finished that first bottle I had improved so much that I was able to go down town myself and get my second bottle. Now I am on my fourth bottle and I never felt better in my life and can do as hard a day's work as any man. My nerves are steady and I can stand any kind of noise. I eat anything I want, digest it perfectly and don't feel a trace of indigestion or gas, and the pain across my back has completely disappeared. My kidneys are in fine condition and I sleep all night long as sound as a child and get up in the mornings feeling just fine. If any man had told me that Tanlac would do me just half as much as it has I would have laughed at him."

As long as I live I will never be able to praise Tanlac enough for the wonderful good it has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., in Bristol by Dr. G. W. Somerville, in Centreville by Stevens Bros., in Woodstock by E. W. Mair, in Benton by W. E. Porter, in River de Chute by Daniel B. Baird, and in Florenceville by A. B. Lovely and in Bath by Bath Drug Co., H. M. Foster, Mount Pleasant, John McIntosh, Glassville, Chas. L. Bent, Plester Rock.

Captured Uninjured

The following amazing paragraph appeared in the local columns two weeks ago:

Miss Lillian Shaw of Wicklow who, while on her way to Albert, was caught, uninjured, at North Bay, has the editor's thanks for sending western papers giving details of the disaster.

The words "in the train wreck" were omitted, so friends of Miss Shaw will be relieved to know she was not running away as the item indicated.

Deacon Carleton Turner

In the early morning of Jan. 30, 1920, there passed from this life a well known and highly respected citizen in the person of Deacon George Carleton Turner of Connel N. B.

Though in his 85th year, and his faculties dimmed to some extent for the last year or two, he was able to be around until about a month before his death, and therefore was spared any lengthy suffering.

He was a man of sterling character and high christian influence interested in every work for the advancement of humanity, but especially so in all that pertained to the up building of his master's kingdom, having given the greatest part of his life to devoted service in his church of which he was Deacon for over 60 years and of which he was a charter member when organized and known as the Free Christian Baptist Church at mouth of the big Presque Isle. The progress of the church, both spiritually and financially was in a large measure due to his unflagging zeal and faith. In the early days when there could be no regular pastor, he often became the pastor and the evangelist, visiting and praying with the sick and aged, and as a result of his exhortations from time to time not a few were turned from the error of their ways.

It was a rare occasion that he missed a church service of any kind, making fires in the old church and later in the new, during the winter seasons, no matter how extreme the weather often with only a brother deacon to join him, Josiah Stickney who went to his reward several years ago.

They always had a little prayer meeting however, thus claiming the promise "Where two or three meet together in my name there will I be in the midst to own and bless."

The good deacon was also Superintendent of the Sunday School (probably organized by himself) during at least fifty years of its existence and with the help of his beloved wife (deceased some six years ago) and other faithful teachers he made the school a thriving one for many years. He was ever zealous that the Kingdom of Christ should be established in the hearts of the children, many of whom now Christian men and women claim to have received in that school their greatest impetus for good, and will cherish with reverence the memory of their devoted leader.

Though his environment was that of a country community, who can say how far reaching was his influence? How many directly or indirectly, have been blessed by his teaching and unselfish example?

He loved all ministers of the gospel and they ever found a welcome in his home.

During his long life, he had his share of discouragements, sorrows, and financial losses, but nevertheless was often heard to say Surely goodness and mercy hath followed me all the days of my life.

He delighted to sing the good old fashioned hymns and in his declining years his voice remained surprisingly strong. In his partially unconscious moments a few days before his death, it is said that he sang all the verses of the hymn, "Will Jesus find us watching." Almost the last he was able to speak. There is no doubt but that he was found watching when the summons came. He might have said with the Apostle of old "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Henceforth is laid up for me a crown of Righteousness which the Lord, the Righteous Judge shall give me in that day.

The deceased was the son of W. M. F. Turner, a school master of early times, and was grandson of W. M. Turner, an officer last

TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.

"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good. Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-lives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-lives'."

'Fruit-a-lives' cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

his father's family he was the last to go, having been a man of great physical strength.

He is survived by all his children, one son Fred G. Turner of Summerfield, and four daughters Mrs. O. N. Miller, who cared for him and Mrs. J. M. Perry, both of Connel, Mrs. G. W. Johnson of Vancouver, and Mrs. J. A. Grant of Stickney. Also by three granddaughters, and five grandsons three of the latter having served in the Great War, and three great-grandchildren, besides a large connection.

His funeral was held from his late home on the old garrison hill and conducted by the Rev. F. E. Bishop, pastor of his church.

Notwithstanding the severity of the weather and the snow blockade a good many neighbors and other friends came to pay their last tribute of respect to the aged gentleman.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.
