LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

—Mr. Blatch, arrested in Charlottetown for robbery, has been discharged.

—On Friday an inebriate mother threw her child out the window at Halifax.

—The New Brunswick Government have fixed November 25th as Thanksgiving Day.

—At the Methodist centennial service held in Moncton on Sunday, a collection of $154 was taken for the Memorial Hall Fund.

—The Scott Act Election in takes place in Fredericton on Sunday, a collection of $154 was taken for the Memorial Hall Fund.

—By a treaty just made with the Bay of Tunis, France assumes control of the Government of that country, giving the Bay a free port.

—Admiral McClintock has taken the "Charybdis" to the hands of the Dominion Government, and she now lies at H. M. dockyards at Halifax.

—News from the west coast of Vancouver, B. C., report the wreck of the British steamer, and the supposed loss of several hundred passengers.

—By an ordinance recently passed in the city of Chicago, young men under age, found entering drinking saloons are subject to a penalty ranging from $25 to $100.

—The business of brewing in this country has already assumed large proportions and is rapidly increasing.

—A Nova Scotia newspaper speaks of the present Local Government there as "a collection of rural notabilities," and "butcherlike blackguards from the slums of Halifax."

—Capt. Joseph B. Boyd, a Nova Scotian, who has lived in Calais lately, recently died from injuries received while his vessel was passing a drawbridge at Boston.

—A London despatch of the 24th inst., says: "Sales, today, did a vast amount of damage throughout the country. Many districts were flooded. The shipping along the coast suffered severely. A steamer was sunk in the channel by collision and nine persons drowned. At Sheerness the gale has not been equalled in 30 years."

—Annie Callaghan, who was sent to the St. John almshouse about a week ago after a drinking bout, threw herself from the window of the building and fell nearly thirty feet, but escaped serious injury.

—The election of councillors for Cumberland is being a serious matter to a business-like aspect. The candidates are in one ticket, Richard Pipes, Joshua Black, and John W. Smith; and on the other, George W. Forrest, Dr. C. A. Black, and Matthew Fitchet.

—According to the Amherst Gazette, the authorities of Grace Church, Winnipeg, have been sending to Messrs. Rhodes & Curry for an altar for their place of worship. This is a high tribute to the manufacturers of the Lower Provinces. But to make this altar properly a workman trained in Sackville had to be employed. Albert Dool, late of Sackville, was the happy man who was led to the altar and told to make it.

—Mr. Japhet Cole, a workman in Messrs. C. R. Casey & Sons tannery, Amherst, met with a serious accident on Tuesday last. His hand caught in the splitting machine at which he was working and before the latter could be stopped it had drawn his arm in almost up to the elbow.

—Some days ago Mr. Price, of West Brook saw mill, entertained a stranger. He entertained an angel on Sunday and on Monday morning went away. One of the mill men had left his vest hanging up in his boarding house, the vest contained a watch and chain, also another watch and chain. The stranger did not know the angel, but he broke their drill and have experienced no little difficulty in getting it out. Mr. Merrill has obtained the services of a Bradford gentleman, and they hope in a short time to either drill through the old drill or get it out.

—Mr. Rufus S. Merrill, also of Boston, has taken up considerable land near St. Joseph's, Dorchester, for the purpose of boring for oil. They have several wells bored and in one at the distance of thirteen hundred feet, they broke their drill and have experienced no little difficulty in getting it out.
