two superioryoung men, both sociable and obliging. I do not believe you could find on the whole I. C. R. two young men who give more satisfaction to the public at large. John McL. Fraser keeps an hotel here. It is the only one of any note in this locality. Mr. Fraser is well p tronized by summ r tourists who do not belong to the American Club. Yet with all our good things, we have to contend with many evils, in the shape of grog shanties, which deal out on the sly intoxicating drinks of the worst kind to every Tom, Dick and Harry. Even the squaws and Indians are patronized. It is not an uncommon event to see a squaw lying dead drunk alongside the highway at midday. The municipality of the township are not doing their duty in allowing such illegal traffic to be carried on. However, it is to be hoped the time is not far distant, when these nuisances will be annihilated and peace and sobriety be established. We have got a Blue Ribbon Band organized in this place, pledging ourselves to abstain from all intoxicants, and it is to be hoped in the strength of divine grace it may do much good.

On Monday, of last week George Goden, Jos. Dugas, Joseph Blanchard, Bruns Boudreau and Philias Terris, of Bathurst, took the sectionman's car and started for work some distance up the line of the Caraquet Railway. While going along at a fair rate of speed the planks with which the car was seated gave way and broke, precipitating the five men on the rails directly in front of the car. George Goden was instantly killed; Jos. Dugas had his arm broken; Joseph Blanchard, Burns Boudreau and Philias Terris were seriously injured about the arms and legs.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The master of the sealing schooner Alfred Adams, which has just arrived at Vancouver, reports that when in Behrings Sea his schooner was captured by the American steamer Rush and stripped of about two thousand seal skins which he had caught. The schooner was then placed in charge of an American prize crew and ordered to proceed to Sitka for trial. After the Rush had departed the schooner's crew resumed charge and landed their schooner, prize crew and all safely in a British port.

The potato crop is a failure in Ontario. The Hamilton Times believes that the demand will, in part at least, be supplied from Manitoba. At present a bushel of potatoes cost more in Ontario than a bushel of wheat. The New Brunswick potato crop is not as large as in some years, but both New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island have a surplus. What do our farmers say to this prospect for a potato trade?
