THEY WERE STUNG. Dog Fanciers Who Deal With a Pennsylvania J. P.

Beware of Yankee dog fanciers! That is the advice of City Engineer Barrow, and he ought to know, because he has had experience. Several weeks ago his daughter sent to an owner in Pennsylvania for a St. Bernard dog. She was greatly disappointed when a Great Dane arrived. It was intended first to ship the animal back, but on second thought Mr. Barrow sent for the pedigree, as several dog fanciers declared the Dane a valuable piece of dog flesh. It was a good pedigree that arrived, but unfortunately it was for a lady dog. The matter was placed in the hands of Mr. J. G. Farmer and the dog was shipped back. The former owner refused to accept it, but directed that it be sent to another party. The dog was also turned away from there, and finally the express company took charge of it. Mr. Farmer wrote to the Pennsylvania town instructing a solicitor there to proceed against the dog fancier. The lawyer wrote back saying that the man, who was a justice of the peace, did not have enough to make it worth while taking proceedings against him. Mr. Barrow thought he would come to pay duty again on the dog coming into the country, but the Customs House authorities relieved him of worry on this point.

Mr. Barrow will pay the express charges now and get the dog back. Mr. A. A. Lees, another local dog fancier, is said to have been tricked, too, by an owner from across the line, from whom he purchased a dog, and there are several others who have had experiences which will make them very cautious in the future.

To-morrow afternoon the Hamilton Gun Club will hold the first of their regular winter series of shoots. The Robertson cup, Dupont shield and Reardon cup will start with to-morrow's shoot. Members competing for the above trophies must shoot at not less than 300 targets: high average to count. It is also the intention to hold merchandise events in connection with the regular shoots.

Brantford Exposition: It is almost a sure thing that Roy Brown will be the manager of the Brantford seven. There is no question about the professional idea thoroughly taking hold in Brantford, and it looks now as if some stellar hockey will be seen this year. Mr. Arthur Burnley, of this city, is Vice-President of the League, and Roy Brown holds a position on the Executive. This city's interests will, therefore, be well protected officially.

The Overcoat Problem

If you have made up your mind that an Overcoat to cost, say, between $20 and $30 is none too good for you, we would like to wrestle with you mentally.

No other store can show you as large a stock of these high-class garments, ready for service, as we can. Big in numbers, varied in models, diversified in weaves, colors and patterns.

If you have made up your mind that an Overcoat at from $10 to $15 would about satisfy your needs and purse, we have a mighty strong argument in garments that far more than justify these prices.
