BIG GAME HERE TO-NIGHT.

There is excellent ice at the Thistle Rink, and to-night's championship game between the Hamilton and Collingwood teams should be a hummer. The Tigers promise to put up the game of their lives, and some of their admirers think they can overcome Collingwood's lead of eight points. It is generally believed that the home team will win the game, but some think that they will win the round. Southam will be in his old position as rover. The probable line-up of the teams is:

THE DUTCH WERE BEATEN.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—Toronto jumped into an undisputed lead in the Canadian Professional League race Saturday night by defeating Berlin at the Mutual Street Kink 5 to 4. Though the score was close and at half-time even up, three all, the play was considerably in favor of the grey and red. The ice, thanks the the play was considerably in layer of the grey and red. The ice, though better than had been expected, was sticky in the first half, and uneven in the second. But Berlin's favorite kind of going did not counterbalance the superior playing abilities of the Torontos, and had it not been for the latter's poor shooting luck, coupled with the sterling work of Ellis, the Dutchmen would have beaten off. At one stage of the first half the visitors led by two to one, but their advantage was short-lived.

In the second half the homesters notched the first two counters in the first 12 minutes of play, giving them, as it turned out, a winning lead. Berlin came back a minute and a half later with an addition to their total, ending

That the Vies were plucky and kept at it till the finish is the best that can be said for them. Ottawa was more aggressive and showed more speed. Chicago, Feb. 17 .- W. W. Wittig, of Milwaukee, who has undertaken to stage the world's championship wrestling match between Geo. Wittig has already secured the signature of the "Russian lion" and Hackenschmidt will be ready to take on Gotch shortly after March 22, when his New York exhibition matches close.

"Hack" expects to sail for New York on March 1, and, starting March 16, he will figure in a half dozen contests at Gotham playhouses. Gotch has thus far failed to put his signature to Wittig's articles, but the Milwaukee man declares the match will probably be held in Chi

Jack Abram, London's clever rover, who has been termed by many Toronto hockey men as the fastest at his position in the intermediate series, will not play in the Preston contest. When the team arrived back from Simcoe a physician was called to attend Abram, who has been complaining of a very sore leg, and it was found that he had sustained a cut nearly an inch deep below the ankle, which necessitated several stitches. The physician stated that had the player been struck half an inch over from where the blow landed, Abram would have lost the use of his imb entirely, as a tendon would have been cut.—London Advertiser. The last game that Branston played he scored 13 baskets, which speaks very highly of his old form. Manager Long received a photograph of the team, and Ald. J. P.
