GOOD ROADS BY-LAW.

The defeat of the good roads by-law was no surprise to those in touch with municipal affairs. Although it was predicted after the by-law was voted down last year that it would carry with an overwhelming majority this year...

NURSES' HOME BY-LAW.

There was general regret in the City Hall and among the aldermen that the by-law providing for a $20,000 addition to the nurses' home was defeated. It was only beaten by two votes and it is possible that there will be a recount...

THE SEWERS BY-LAW.

The sewers by-law was the only one to go through, and it was very fortunate for the city. Ald. Jutten, chairman of the committee last year, is quite pleased with the result, and takes it as an evidence of an expression of confidence by the people at large in his last year's committee...

GOOD DOG POISONED.

The police have been asked to investigate a case of dog poisoning on John street north. Miss Garrett has complained that a valuable red cocker spaniel was poisoned yesterday, making the second one in a year. The dog was the pet of her nephew, and he feels very badly over it.

RESULTS IN THE COUNTY.

J. Walter Gage Looks Like Warden For 1909.

Millen Beats Bridgman For Reeve of Saltfleet.

Scott Waite Carried the Day in Ancaster Township.

The result of the county elections held yesterday shows that the Tory machine was again defeated. The standing in the Council will practically be the same as last year, nine Liberals and six Conservatives. It is almost a certainty that Mr. J. Walter Gage, Reeve of Barton township, will be Wentworth's next Warden. In all matters pertaining to the county he has exercised great care, and has shown commendable business sagacity. As head of the county he would do the position honor, and prove a worthy successor to Warden Emery, whose reign was peaceful and triumphant. The returns of the elections are as follows:

DUNDAS.

Mayor—J. Wilkie Lawerson. Reeve—L. P. Spittal. Council—J. L. Bertram, Wm. Mount, W. H. Boyle, Wm. Linn, W. H. Moss, J. D. Pennington.

AN OPINION VENTURED.

"Do you believe the ignorance is ever bliss?" said the erudite girl. "I never studied the question," answered Miss Cayenne. "But I should say that a young person who doesn't know the difference between holy and infernal would have a decided advantage of a Christmas party."

TRUST HIM TO FIND A WAY.

"How does Santa Claus manage to reach the people who live in flats? He can't take the presents down the chimneys." "Well, he can send 'em up in the dumb waiter, can't he?"—Washington Herald.

ALD. GEORGE GUY, Re-elected in Ward No. 1.

THE TORY MACHINE ROUT

Ward 3—Ald. Nicholson. Ward 4—C. L. Evans. Ward 5—George Hill. Ward 6, Ald. Howard. Ward 7—A. M. Ewing, C. H. Brayley.

THE LIBERALS.

The Liberal party took no part whatever in the election. Ald. McLaren's organization was his own and not a single candidate in the field had the backing of the Liberal party, although Ald. McLaren got the solid support of Liberals who are anxious to see municipal affairs out of politics. There are eight Liberals in the Council. Ward 1 returned Thos. Gage, Morris and Milne. Ward 2 sent back Ald. Crerar. Ward 3 returned Ald. Peregrine. Ward 4 went solid Conservative and Ward 5 did Ald. Gardner the honor of having him at the head of the poll. Ward six elected W. J. Ryan and Ward 7 elected Thos. Robson.

SOME OLD FACES GONE.

The elections afforded some genuine surprises, chief of which was the defeat of three members of last year's Council. Aldermen DeLeon and Ald. Nicholson in Ward three, and Ald. Lewis in Ward four. Perhaps the greatest surprise was the defeat of Ald. Dickson. He was just nosed out by Will Applegate for third place. There was a big field in this ward. Ald. Nicholson was only four votes behind Ald. Dickson. The latter is one of the best aldermen that ever served in the City Council, and a former chairman of the Finance Committee. Some months ago he announced himself as a majorly candidate this year, but later withdrew in favor of Ald. McLaren. It is doubtful if any alderman around the Council board had a better grasp of civic business than Ald. Dickson, or more executive ability. The city is bound to miss his service. Ald. Nicholson is another old member of the Council and for years chairman of the Police and Jail Committee. His defeat was not such a big surprise, and those in touch with municipal affairs looked for him to go down in a field of seven candidates, five of whom were Conservatives. Ald. Lewis' defeat in Ward four is a matter for regret. He was one of the best aldermen in the Council for the past few years and always had the courage of his convictions. The fact that he is not living in the ward now doubtless contributed to his defeat. Ald. Howard, who has served a number of years in the Council and was chairman of the Harbor Committee last year, was just nosed out by two votes in Ward six.

ALD. JOHN G. FARMER, Re-elected in Ward No. 2.

THEY RAN CLOSE.

In some of the wards it was a close fight between the first four men, and in one ward at least, Ward six, where W. J. Ryan just nosed Alderman Howard out by three votes, there were likely to be a recount. In ward one, Milne, who topped the poll, was only four votes ahead of Morris, the second man. In ward two, Ald. Crerar, high man, had a comfortable lead over C. H. Lees, who polled 32 votes more than Farmer, the third man. In Ward three, where Aldermen Nicholson and Dickson, of last year's Council, were defeated, another surprise was furnished, John Forth, a new man, topping the poll the first time out. He had a substantial majority over Alderman Peregrine who polled one vote more than Forth. The third man, Allan, Clark and Ellis were pretty well strung out in Ward four. H. N. Thomas, the fourth man, ran strong.

Ward five furnished a lively fight. As expected, Ald. Gardner was high man. For second place there was keen rivalry between Aldermen Wright and Sweeney, and the former won by sixteen votes. George Hill was fourth, with seventeen less, and only one ahead of Ex-Ald. Kennedy. Alderman Jutten and Dr. Hopkins made a runaway race of it in Ward six, Alderman Jutten heading the poll with a substantial majority over Hopkins, while the latter had a lead of 372 over Ryan the third man. Ryan is only two votes ahead of Howard. In the newspaper extras last night according to the city clerk's count this should have been 56. Cooper, Anderson and Robson had a walk over in Ward seven, although a bitter attempt was made to down them. Cooper was high man, 30 ahead of Anderson. The latter had a lead of 69 over Robson, who beat Ewing by 240.

POWER NOT THE ISSUE.

A careful analysis of the vote shows clearly that the power question was not the issue in the election. Not only is this strikingly demonstrated in the Mayorality returns, but also in the voting by wards. In Ward 1 the three Conservative candidates who tried to ride to victory on the power horse were defeated. In Ward 2 only one Hydro-Electric man was elected, among the defeated being C. Bird, a pronounced Hydro-Electric man. The defeat of Ald. Dickson in this ward cannot be attributed to a vote for the Cataract agreement, because Ald. Nicholson, a staunch Hydro-Electric supporter, was also defeated. In

HOTEL FIRE.

Two Women Seriously Hurt at Niagara Falls Blaze.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Fire was discovered early to-day in the Columbia Hotel, a five-story brick structure. The seventy guests all got out safely, but two employees, Lydia Billings, an Indian, aged 21, and Mary Swinczek, aged 17, were found later lying unconscious in an alley where they had dropped from a room by which they were endeavoring to descend from the fourth floor. Miss Billings' legs were broken, and she was injured internally. Mary Swinczek was badly injured about the ankles and feet.

The fire was discovered by a man who registered yesterday as William Bailey, but did not give his residence. He disappeared after giving an alarm, and has not been seen since. The property loss is about $15,000.

DEAD IN GRAVE.

Sexton Found Dead in the Grave He Was Digging.

Branchville, N. J., Jan. 5.—With a shovel with which he had been digging dutifully in his hands, Edward Christian of Halsey, sexton of Hallville Christian Church, was found lying dead at the bottom of the grave which he had been preparing to receive the body of Mrs. Henry Straway. This funeral was approaching the Hallville cemetery when the officiating clergyman noticed that the grave had not been dug fully. The procession was halted at the gate, and a physician who climbed into the grave said that the sexton had died of heart failure. As the sexton was late in arriving at the cemetery, it was decided not to bury the woman's body till to-day.
