

Boy Scout Message From Gov. Gen.

Truro, N. S., December 10—The following is the special message from His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, Chief Scout for Canada, to the boy scouts of the Dominion, which has been especially written for and will appear in CANADIAN BOY for December, the official organ of the Boy Scouts Association of Canada. The Duke of Devonshire's Christmas Message to the Boy Scouts of Canada.

The question is often asked what will be the future of Canada, and the immediate reply is to point out the wonderful national assets of the country, and the endless opportunities which it provides, but by far the greatest of all assets is the character of her citizens.

The history of Canada in peace and war is a record of continuous success, and it is for us in our generation to see that record is worthily maintained.

One of our surest hopes lies in the Canadian boy of today.

He inherits a great tradition, he has the instincts and qualities which have made British and Canadian citizenship what it is, and as a Boy Scout he has the opportunity of training himself to make the best use of them.

The year now drawing to a close has been eventful but we can look forward with ever increasing confidence and as Chief Scout I am glad to have the privilege of wishing every Scout a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

(Signed)
Devonshire
Chief Scout
Government House, Ottawa,
December 1919.

News Value Plus.
Some advertisers seem to need something in the nature of a world-wide cataclysm to see the opportunity to inject news value into their announcements.

Not so with Allentown's (Pa.) most prominent barber.
Recently one of his windows was broken. Next morning he had tacked a sign on the boards which covered the fracture:

"Broken in the Rush to Get a First-Class Shave."

Father—You young rascal what are you doing up in my apple tree?
Boy—Please, sir I'm frightening away the birds; they're such awful thieves.

COPENHAGEN CHEWING TOBACCO

Copenhagen is used differently from ordinary chewing tobacco. Take a small pinch, for a start, and put it between the lower lip and gum, in the centre. Afterwards you can increase the size of the pinch to suit the strength of the chewer's desire. Copenhagen is strong, because the tobacco of which it is made is cut into fine grains, which makes it impart the strength thoroughly and quickly. Hence, a little "pinch" goes a long way, showing that Copenhagen is not only an unusually economical chew, but also one of the finest quality, being made of the best, old, rich, high-flavored tobacco.

NO MORE CHILBLAINS!

Mr. J. A. McFarlane of Napanee, Ont., had chilblains so bad that he couldn't wear boots. Egyptian Liniment relieved them. Don't suffer from chilblains this winter. This liniment is also for Frost Bites, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Sore Chest and Throat, Neuralgia, etc.

"CASCARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Gallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a small barrel. That's the first step to general misery—indigestion, loss of sleep, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your congested bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out tomorrow. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER
Contains no alum

We unhesitatingly recommend Magic Baking Powder as being the best and purest baking powder possible to produce. It possesses elements of food that have to do the building up of brain and nerve matter and is absolutely free from alum or other injurious substitutes.

A HOME CONVERSATION.

The following conversation was recently heard concerning one of our reputable grocers.

The son William about to leave home for the woods, gave his mother $40.00 with the following instructions as quoted by the woman of the house.

Now John, here is $40.00 which will left with me to give you, and he said you were to go to Tom Russell's, who is the cheapest man in town and buy for ourselves an aluminum teakettle and 2 granite iron pots, 2 saucepans, with covers, as my back is broken lifting off those heavy iron pots. Also get me a doz cups and saucers with plates to match, one glass set in Ruby and Gold one water set in Ruby and Gold, one doz. tumblers, a doz. knives and forks, and a doz spoons. Bring a Slop Pail and don't forget 4 lbs those small raisins, 2 lbs of his 55 cent tea, a bag of sugar, some toy tooks and dolls, and with the balance get some flour and cornmeal. Be sure to go to Tom Russell's as he is selling cheaper than the rest.

ROD AND GUN

Away down on the storm swept coast of Nova Scotia, lives Bonnycastle Dale the well-known naturalist who contributes interesting articles to ROD AND GUN IN CANADA. A few years ago he lived on the coast of the Pacific Ocean gathering specimens and photos of Canadian Wild Life. December issue of ROD AND GUN IN CANADA tells the interesting story of how he spent one Christmas Day amongst the harbor seals, sea urchins and varied water life of the Gulf of Georgia. Other interesting stories and articles included in this issue are: "The Keyhole Bull," by the skilled writer of Nature stories—George Gilbert; "In the Basin," by H. C. Haddon; "Silver Tip—A Tale of The Far North," by Robert E. Hewes; "The Propagation of Brook Trout," by John W. Titcomb. In addition to these splendid features ROD AND GUN IN CANADA for December contains the usual high class Fishing, Guns and Trap Line Department. W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Publisher.

ERNEST DOIRON APPOINTED REPORTER SUPREME COURT OF N. B.

Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 10—The resignation of Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Harrison, as reporter of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, was accepted by the Government at this session and Ernest Dolron, barrister-at-law of Chatham, was appointed to succeed him.

The new appointee, Mr. Dolron, is a Bachelor of Arts, of St. Joseph College, L. L. B. of Dalhousie and a Rhodes Scholarship winner, although he was unable to avail himself of the opportunity to pursue his education at Oxford as he enlisted in 1916 and served as a gunner in France in the 24th, Battery, C. F. A., from March 1917, until February 1919.

"What's the matter, old man?" asked Brown, as he met a friend. "Are you feeling sick?"
"No, not exactly that," replied the friend, "but I'll admit I've been worried of late. You remember I employed a man to trace my pedigree?"
"Yes," replied Brown. "What's the trouble? Hasn't he been successful?"
"Successful? I should say he had!" said the friend. "I'm having to pay him hush money."

KNOWS THE LIVE ONES
A well-known wholesale merchant says that every time a retail merchant buys a credit consignment from him he subscribes to the paper published in the town where the retail merchant is established. As long as he sees the retailer's advertisement in the paper all is well, but as soon as the advt. stops, measures are taken looking to the collection of the account.

He Chased Thieves For 1,000 Miles

In an old newspaper bearing date of 1884 appears an account of a man who chased a band of horse thieves 1,000 miles, "got them" and drove the horse home again.

That man was John R. Hughes of Texas. He and his neighbors had been robbed by the outlaws of the border. With grim determination Hughes followed the thieves—without money, with little food and rest—all through the Southwest. He was absent from home just a year. In recognition of his spirit and persistence, he was made a captain of the "Texas Rangers," because just such "stuff" was wanted in those days to clear the border of horse and cattle thieves and other desperadoes, white and Mexican.

A wonderful picturization of the Rangers of those days—a picture true to spirit and character—is shown in the William Fox production based on Zane Grey's novel, "The Lone Star Ranger," featuring William Farnum.

In his presentation of the heroic Ranger, strong, magnetic, unafraid, steel true, Mr. Farnum is said to outdo even his previous splendid work in Zane Grey's "Riders of the Purple Sage" and "The Rainbow Trail."

This thrilling photoplay will come to the Happy Hour Theatre Thursday.

MAY SUCCEED LATE MR. SUMNER

Col. S. B. Anderson, of Moncton, was before the government. His business, it is understood, is in connection with a re-organization of the office of New Brunswick agent general in London. Possibly his appointment to the office made vacant by the death of F. W. Sumner will be made Col. Anderson commanded the original 8th Field battery, C. E. F., and later an artillery brigade in France.

"BEAVER" FLOUR Barrel

Apple Pie and Hot Rolls for supper—Jelly Roll and Chocolate Cake and delicious homemade Bread for dinner —Puddings and Doughnuts, and Cookies and Raisin Bread —all at their daintiest and best when made of

BEAVER FLOUR

MILLED OF BLENDED WHEAT

"Beaver" Flour is just as good for Pastry as for Bread. It is the product of Ontario winter wheat, blended with western spring wheat to increase the strength. "Beaver" Flour has the best qualities of both kinds of wheat—the whiteness, lightness, delicate flavour and perfect Pastry making qualities of Ontario winter wheat—coupled with the extra strength of western spring wheat. Being scientifically blended in exact proportions, the blended wheats are always the same in strength and quality—and so is the flour.

If you have never tried a blended flour, you cannot imagine what a difference there is between "Beaver" Flour and the usual western spring wheat flours. Get a sack of "Beaver" Flour at your dealer's, and try it for yourself.
