NO GENERAL PROV. ELECTION

The announcement that writes had been issued for the bye-election to fill the vacancy in Northumberland County representation in the provincial legislature is regarded in political circles as meaning that there will be no immediate general provincial election in New Brunswick despite recent rumors.

Until it became definitely known that this bye-election was being brought on, the reports that the federal general elections would be followed immediately by a dissolution of the provincial legislature gained strength. Now it is argued that there will be a flock of bye-elections.

In addition to Honorable J. B. M. Baxter, leader of the Opposition, who, it is said, will join Premier Meighen's government, it is said that George B. Jones and Dr. H. I. Taylor, Opposition members of the Legislature for King's and Charlotte, respectively, will leave the legislature to be candidates in the federal constituencies of Royal and Charlotte. Even Premier Foster, and several of his supporters, including Mr. J. E. Hetherington, provincial secretary-treasurer, have been mentioned as likely to transfer their political activities to the federal field.

Premier Foster, when approached by the Canadian Press correspondent tonight on the question of his entry into federal politics, was entirely non-committal.

SCOUTING

In many cases scouting discovers to the boy his life's vocation. When a Second Class Scout he may begin working for the first six of a long list of Proficiency Badges. As he goes on with his study he acquires elementary but practical knowledge of such subjects as Surveying, Gardening, Bookbinding, Prospecting, Plumbing, Telegraphing, Wireless, Music, Photography, Dairying, Farming, Mining, Metal Working, etc.

The different boy develops initiative and self-confidence. The selfish boy learns thoughtfulness for others—through the "Good Turn every day."

The boy of wealthy parents and the poor boy discover their common ground and worth.

The disrespectful boy learns respect and courtesy.

The over-confident, self-assertive or overbearing boy adjusts himself to others' rights.

The city boy acquires a real knowledge of Nature Lore and Woodcraft with all its benefits to health and mind.

The country boy develops a new and discerning interest in his surroundings; he acquires educational benefits, through his Proficiency Badge work; and he finds companionship, directly or through the Boy Scout Magazine.

CANADIAN BOY, as a member of the great brotherhood of Scouts.

THE BOY SCOUT'S PROMISE

Before becoming a Scout, a boy, in the presence of a Scoutmaster and other Scouts, takes this pledge:

On my honor, I promise that I will do my best—
 To do my duty to God, and the King.
 To help other people at all times.
 To obey the Scout Law.

"On my honor" . . . . . this is the cornerstone of Scouting. Where properly led, ninety-nine per cent, of the boys try their best to live up to it—with all its far-reaching results in character-making during the character-shaping years of a boy's life. If a Scout says a thing is so, it is so. If you give him a task to do, he will do it to the best of his ability. He is on his honor, as a Scout.

A CHINAMAN'S DESCRIPTION OF A PIANO

We are all so accustomed to pianos in our homes that we hardly think how a piano must seem to a man who has never seen or heard one before. A Chinese who went to Europe came back and told his countrymen about the wonderful thing, and this is what he said to them:—

"The Europeans keep a large four-footed beast which they can make sing at will. A man, or more frequently, a woman, or even a feeble girl, sits down in front of the animal and steps on its tail, while, at the same time striking its white teeth with his or her fingers, when the creature begins to sing. The singing though no louder than a bird's is pleasant to listen to. The beast does not bite, nor does it move, though it is not tied up."

Historical Events in Nova Scotia

(1) The Officer Quarters at Fort Anne, Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia. This is now a museum where many interesting historical relics are kept.
 (2) Fort Anne is divided into two sections; this is the connecting archway.

The Nova Scotia Historical Society and its offshoot, the Historical Association of Annapolis Royal are making combined efforts to bring about a fitting commemoration of three interesting historic events this year at Annapolis Royal, the ancient capital of the province. In 1904 the tercentenary of the founding of this place, under its former name of "Fort Royal," was celebrated with great éclat—probably 10,000 people attending—and a monument to de Monts, the founder, in a commanding position in the grounds of Fort Anne, stands as a permanent memorial of that occasion.

Now it is proposed to celebrate and erect a memorial of the tercentenary of the birth of the Province. It was in 1621, the country then being claimed by the British by virtue of Argall's conquest of Acadia in 1613, that James I. of England, VI. of Scotland, granted to Sir William Alexander (afterwards Earl of Stirling), a charter to make of this territory a New Scotland in America, that as there was a New England and a New France there might also be a New Scotland in the New World. This business was finally arranged and the King's Letter, authorizing it issued on the 5th August, 1621, and the date of the tercentenary celebration will in all likelihood be the 5th August this year, and the scene of it the old Fort of Annapolis, now called Fort Anne, where a bronze tablet will be erected as a memorial.

At the same time and place the legal profession will celebrate the bi-centenary of British Civil Courts in Canada and put up a tablet in memory of the establishment of the first of such courts, which sat within the walls of Fort Anne in 1721.

A tablet will also be presented and dedicated bearing the following inscription: "This tablet erected A.D. 1921 under the auspices of the Historical Association of Annapolis Royal commemorates the one hundredth anniversary of the arrival in this Town of Thomas Chandler Haliburton who lived here eight years and began in this place his great career in law, literature and public life."

Thus there will be a tercentenary, a bi-centenary and a centenary celebration, all on one day, in the old stronghold of Fort Royal, whose ramparts, bastions and outworks are still in a wonderful state of preservation, and form the centre of attraction for thousands of visitors every year.

The committees in charge of the arrangements have hopes that the Governor-General will be present to unveil the tablets, which will be formally presented by representatives respectively of the province, the legal profession and the local Historical Association, and will be received for the nation by the Minister of the Interior or some one representing him, and committed to the care of the Superintendent of Fort Anne, which is now a National Park, under the management of the Interior Department of the Federal Government.

It will be a memorable occasion and no doubt will attract a host of visitors.

The full programme, we are assured, will be given to the public at an early date.
