Party-Line Consideration

A two-party line is a single circuit, shared in common by two subscribers. It is not reserved for a single user and should be used on the share-and-share-alike basis.

On a two-party line, it is possible for both users to try to talk out on the same circuit at the same time. There is also the liability of both being wanted at the same time to receive incoming calls.

Therefore, there are special considerations which we urge a party-liner user to keep in mind:

1. Long conversations prevent the use of the line by the other subscriber; therefore party-line talks should be as brief as possible.
2. Whenever another party-line subscriber requests the use of the line for an emergency, courtesy should be prompt the first user temporarily to give up the use of the line.
3. Whenever a party line subscriber takes the receiver from the hook and finds the line in use, the receiver should be replaced at once in a careful manner.
4. At the end of a conversation the receiver should be replaced upon the hook immediately, otherwise the other subscriber cannot signal the central office.
5. Be sure always to give the operator the letters W or J in calling a party-line subscriber.

Co-operation is required to ensure good service of any kind.

FRENCH ARE VERY SUSPICIOUS OF GIVING AID TO GERMANY

PARIS, March 4. — "Whatever dangers may result from peace with Soviet Russia, France must share with England. It is not the same regarding the benefits. England and Germany may gain much from a resumption of commercial relations. We shall gain little or nothing. Yet what hurts them will hurt us also. It's heads they win and tails we lose."

That was a summary of the French viewpoint given today by a high diplomatic authority. He said:

"France has agreed to follow England's lead and assented to the Supreme Council's announcement issued last week in London, but since that date a new factor appears to have been introduced—the relation of Soviet Russia to Germany.

Germany to Develop Russia.

"During the last week it appears that the idea had come to British statesmen that instead of modifying the treaty in Germany's favor, which would be difficult and dangerous, they should kill two birds with one stone by allowing Russia and Germany to assist each other. Germany would develop Russia and Russia would put Germany on her feet again.

"We want Germany to pay, and there must be economic recovery if she is to do so. We realize that it will not be easy to strike the exact happy means which will allow Germany to recover enough to pay with out gaining sufficient strength for her to refuse to do so. There are political, diplomatic, military and racial considerations. Germany is prostrate, but we do not believe that defeat has changed the heart of the German people.

Struggle of Centuries.

"Century after century they have never lost an opportunity of attacking us when they felt strong enough to do so. With that knowledge in our hearts, can we view with unconcern the prospect not only of a re-strengthened and rehabilitated Germany, but of a Germany combined with Russia, bulwarked by Russia's inexhaustible granaries and supplies? Are the British blind to the danger? Are there no far sighted statesmen in England who can look beyond the immediate political advantages and economic benefits, and see that a combination with Russia would be a heaven sent opportunity for Germany of winning back, 10 or 20 years hence not only what she has lost, but that paramount supremacy she fought the war to achieve?"

CARDINAL CLAIMS BROUGHT CAUSE OF DISCONTENT IN U. S.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—The key to the prohibition problem in the United States is held by Congress, which also possesses power to allay the present discontent incident to its enforcement, Cardinal Gibbons declared yesterday.

"If Congress were to place a liberal interpretation upon the question as to what constitutes an intoxicating beverage," said the cardinal, "such as would permit the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines and yet maintain the spirit of the prohibition act, much would be accomplished toward solving a problem now becoming acute and destined to become more and more a basis for unrest in America."

Referring to the duty of foreigners who come to America to make their home, Cardinal Gibbons declared "they must not come as dictators but as future citizens."

Persons Employed By Dominion Must Not Join Unions

Cabinet Denies Them That Right in Letter to Trades and Labor Congress.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 6. — The right of employees of the Dominion Government to join labor unions was denied in a letter sent by the cabinet to the Dominion trades and labor congress.

There is no incentive from the viewpoint of profit to cause the government to impose unfair working conditions or wages, the letter says, and parliament has made adequate provision for settling grievances.

"It cannot, therefore, be conceded" the letter continues, "that public service employees should be subject to control of any organization of industrial workers and thereby liable to be involved in industrial disputes."

The letter adds that in so far as private industry is concerned the government has recognized the wisdom of collective bargaining on more than one occasion.

Check Swindlers Just

Cheques Made Out in Catharines Merely Passed Some Are Also Wiped Out in London

A young couple were arrested by the police on Saturday afternoon as they were ready to start on their mission which brought them to the city, that of relieving sundry unsuspecting merchants or swindlers.

Chief Greene got word from a man from St. Catharines, Ont., that a man named Stanley West had that morning passed several cheques in that city on various merchants, the method being to cash some goods and tender a worthless cheque in payment, receiving change in cash. How much money was gathered up in this way from St. Catharines business men was not stated.

The couple were found in St. Catharines and were locked up. Their names as Leola Greenwood and Stanley West. They had a marriage certificate indicating that they were man and wife. The woman had a man named Greenwood August but it seems had only been with him about a month, which appears to have taken up with her. In the possession of the couple were a number of cheques for various amounts which were to be cashed in St. Catharines merchants. The cheques, the police said today, were drawn up by the woman prisoner and they are holding her on remand Friday on a charge of forgery.

It's Your Step That Attracts

Says Women Pay Too Much For Their Face Instead of Their Corns.

Watch your step! A brisk step is what charms more. Smooth skin, but your high heeled shoes and you limp. That's bad, girls, and you know. Corns destroy beauty and grace. Corns are very easy to remove. Rub your feet of every corner at the drug store for a quarter ounce of freestone. This is little but is sufficient to remove hard or soft corn or callus from feet.

A few drops applied directly to tender, achy corn relieves the pain and soothes the entire corn and all, lifts right out without pain. This freestone is a gummy substance which dries instantly and smoothes up the corn without inflaming or irritating the surrounding skin. Women must keep in mind that smooth feet create a youthful step and enhance her attractiveness.

Junkers in French Camp Refuse

BERLIN, March 8.—A French officer was beaten and thrown from the Adlon, the leading hotel in Berlin, last night, by an enraged Chauvinistic group because they refused to stand while the orchestra played "Deutschland Uber Alles." The instigator of the affair was a Hohenzollern, Prince Joachim of Prussia, who was in Berlin with his Royal relatives several days before the war on account of a visit with an actress.

Looking For Trouble For a fortnight he has been playing the monotonically inclined orchestra that the orchestra played.
