ROME, Aug. 18. The French Ambassador to the Holy See left for Paris on the 15th, on a leave of ten days. This departure is thought

The library of the Vatican has been puriched by the addition to its pictures. In the cardinal secretary land for keeping down the people has been administered sternly and swiftly, but the Land Act, as has been plainly proved, has been administered tardily and inefficiently. The right honorable France from his command of the French fleet in Madagascar, died on the 11th inst.

The library of the Vatican has been enriched by the addition to its pictures of a splendid portrait of the Holy Father by M. Bon. Leo XIII. is represented tull-size, standing in his study wearing his red cloak and white soutane. His face and expression are redolent of benevolence. In his right hand he holds the Encyclical on St. Thomas Aquinas.

Verses and laudatory prose excellently written are the mediums employed on such an occasion. This day also the Holy Father admits a number of persons to his Mass and to the Holy Communion from his hands. The poor are also considered on this occasion.
