THE DIAMOND RHEEMATIC CURE.—
There is no doubt that the Canadian public feel a deep sense of obligation and gratitude to the celebrated English Officialist who has recently for the first time introduced into Canada his rheumatic remedies that are meeting with such general favor with the Canadian public. Scarcely a journal in the whole of the Deminion that we pick up but contains the evidence of its who is the discoverer has walked the aisles of the Hospitals of London, Eng-land, for many years, practising with unfailing success his remedies for the cure of rhemmatism, and it must be a unfailing success his reinadice for the ource of rheumatism, and it must be a matter of pride to him and a source of great satisfaction to witness and wide spread approval of his efforts and tal-ents in the alleviation of suffering and the restoration to health of his fellow men.
