Dunlop.

Miss Sarah Gibson, of Goderich, is visiting friends here.

D. Cumming, familiarly known as the Dunlop architect, has been awarded the contract for building Bethany church, Goderich township. It is not the first church Donald has built.

Willie Brodwell, who for some time was a resident here left for his home in Alpena, Mich., on the 11th inst.

Mrs. Cooke, of Reed city, Mich., visited friends here last week.

Kintail.

The Rev. Mr. McKenna, of Glasgow, Scotland, is here on a visit to friends.

The "Olympic games" are to be held this year on Monday, the 25th. To judge from the posters, we should say that something good is in store for us on that day.

On the evening of the 25th, a concert is to be held in Young's hall. A string band from Duncannon is to be in attendance.

On the 18th inst., Mr. Donald Mc-Donald, one of the early settlers of this section of country, passed away to the house appointed for all living at the ripe age of seventy-five.

Selfst.

Mr. Henry Alton left last week for Algonia, to take up land, if suited with the country and climate.

George Henry moved a few days ago from Lockport, to the farm formerly occupied by Wright Martin.

John Longhead is now running his hotel as a temperance one, and has started a grocery in connection therewith.

On Wednesday, Wm. Harper left for Manitoba, accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mrs. Harper's many friends will be pleased to hear that she is sufficiently recovered from her recent severe illness to rejoin her family in the west.

A sad accident happened near St.
Helena last week to Mrs. Morton. She, it appears, was left by her husband for a few minutes holding the horses in the field attached to the plough, when they became restless and unmanageable, and trampled her under their feet, bruising her inwardly, and tramping one arm almost to jelly. She is now under the care of Dr. McCrimmon, who has little hopes of her recovery.

Lecture.

The croquet season was opened here last week.

A number of persons think that the township council ought to make some outlay on the lake hill at the terminus of batterment row. There is a large traffic there during the summer by those drawing sand, gravel and drift wood. There is much water also drawn from the lake during the summer for cattle and also for household purposes. The expenditure of enough to make the road down the bank safe and comfortable would be satisfactory to many.

The following officers were installed for ensuing quarter at the last meeting of the I. O. G. T. No. 13. Owing to sickness Bro. Cumming was absent, and the installation was conducted by Bro.
Linklater.—Bro. John Horton, W. C. T.;

Bro. J. A. McArthur, W. S.; Bro. W.
MacManus, W. F. S.; Bro. R. E. Brown, W. T.; Bro. Geo. Fulford, W. M.; Bro.
A. H. Clutton, W. Chap.; sister Eva Weiss, T. G.; Bro. S. R. Williams, O. G.;

sister M. McManus, W. K. H. S.; sister Ella Horton, W. L. H. S. Last quarter witnessed very good attendance and six additions to membership. The annual picnic will be held on the 23rd inst.

Lockport.

THE VOLUNTEERS.—During the past few days considerable excitement prevailed in our village owing to the call of our volunteers to the front, but it reached the climax on Monday when we were called upon to bid farewell to the volunteers of No. 3 company, 32nd Batt., which is now on its way to the seat of war in the Northwest. Early in the morning of Monday the streets presented a lively appearance, as large crowds came in from the country to bid farewell to the volunteers and relatives who were going away, when duty called them to serve their country. About 10 o'clock the bugle sounded, and the men took their places in the ranks, in front of the armory, under command of Lieutenant D. Campbell and D. O. Cameron, as Captain Jeffries had not arrived from Kansas in time to take command, although he had telegraphed that he would meet them at Whitechurch or Wingham, which he subsequently did. The boys in red looked exceedingly well, and we feel satisfied that wherever they may be placed they will acquit themselves as men. When ready to start E. L. Johnston took a photo of the company; after which the order "quick march" was given, and the company marched to the station, headed by Piper Finlayson in costume, followed by the spectators.
On arriving at the train a few minutes were given the boys to bid good bye to relatives and friends, when three hearty cheers were given for the volunteers, after which the train started followed by many wishes for their welfare and the hope that all may come safely home again.
