Our Minority Government.

Not only has Sir Edward Morris lost the confidence of the majority of the electorate, but two of his Ministers have lost their seats. We have thus the spectacle of a Government in this country kept in office, although supported only by a definite and clear minority of voters, and two Ministers kept in office who have sustained one of the most decisive defeats ever known in the political history of Newfoundland.

In 1909 the Hon. S. D. Blandford as Minister of Agriculture and Mines was sustained in the District of Bonavista by a vote of 3,158, and Minister D. Morrison by a vote of 3,076, their leading opponent receiving only 652 votes. Mr. Blandford's majority was 2,506, and Mr. Morrison's 2,424 over the vote of that opponent. Four and a half years passed, the Fishermen's Protective Union increased in the numbers of its members in strength. The policy and acts of the Government in reference to the Department of Agriculture and Mines, in regard to timber grants, agricultural policy and the creation of placemen attached to that department, formed the subject of severe comment and censure during the greater part of the time which elapsed between Sir Edward Morris taking over the Government in 1909 and going to the country in 1913. The connection of the Hon. D. Morrison with timber grants and speculations in them formed the subject of Memorials to ex-Governor Williams, asking for his dismissal. These Memorials proceeded from the Fishermen's Protective Union and were addressed to the Governor by Mr. W. F. Coaker, as President of the Fishermen's Protective Union. The prayer of the petition was not acceded to. But when the appeal was made to the constituency of Bonavista, which had elected both these Ministers in 1909 with extraordinary large majorities, the majority of the electors of that important constituency, the most populous of all constituencies except St. John's East, withdrew their confidence from both these Ministers, placed Mr. Morrison at the bottom of the poll and the President of the P. P. U. at the top. The latter who had memorialized the Governor received 3473 votes, and the Minister only 1457. The Memorialist beat the Minister whose dismissal he asked for by 2016 votes, and beat the Minister of the Crown Lands Department by 1849. Although their constituents have withdrawn their support in this decisive manner and under these circumstances, both Ministers still hold office, and the Prime Minister has taken upon himself to keep them there, as appears from their present holding of portfolios. How long is this to go on? It is about time the public were informed as to the intention of the Premier in the premises. What is his intention? Will he attempt against all constitutional practice to keep them in office without a seat in the Legislature? Will he induce some members of the House of Assembly to retire and send them to other constituencies to seek an endorsement of his retention of them in office? Will he flout the opinion of the people and induce the Governor to put them in the Legislative Council? Or will he ask for their resignation and get two new Ministers to try conclusions at the polls. The eyes of the people are on Sir Edward Morris and they are watching closely what he will do.

The Wireless Wonder.

The report in the public cable despatch of the success of Marconi in experimenting with the wireless telephone between Clifton and Glace Bay marks another wonderful step in the progress of wireless communication. For a long time, the success of Marconi in sending wireless signals from Signal Hill across the Atlantic was derided. It was a fact, however, and led to development which has revolutionized communication at sea, led to the saving of many lives at sea, and given rise to new commercial enterprise in the matter of the sending of messages. Wireless telephony is no new thing. Indeed wonders had already been accomplished in long distance telephony without a wire connection, but this experiment of Marconi marks the initial success in oceanic wireless telephony.

Wedding Bells.

On Monday night, at St. Patrick's Church, by Rev. Fr. McDermott, Mr. James Walsh, of Fermeuse led to the altar Miss Theresa Brushett, of Marytown. The bride looked charming in a suit of blue with hat to match and was attended by her sister Miss Minnie Brushett, while the groom was supported by Mr. Michael Tobin. After the nuptial knot had been tied the happy couple drove to their future residence 42 Pleasant Street, where a number of friends were waiting to welcome the happy couple. After partaking of light refreshments the balance of the evening was spent in songs and dancing. The affair closed shortly after midnight. All present wished Mr. and Mrs. Walsh many years of wedded life.

Life is Greivous. Here and There.

There are many things which vex human souls, year after year; thus, the letters with the checks never do on time appear. There are always railway wrecks, or collision with a freight, and the letters with the checks are a month or six weeks late. Vainly do we strain our necks harking for the postman's call; late the letters with the checks, or they never come at all. But as promptly as the sun rises to dispel the shade, comes the letter with the dun—it is never lost or strayed. Railway trains may jump the track, bridges break and rivers rise, trestles over chasms crack, mails be knocked cantrawise; but the letter with the dun from the grocer come to hand: "call upon me with the mon," is the merchant's stern demand. "Call and pay us and repeat," writes the gasworks man, alas! "You have burned ten million feet of our double action gas!" All such letters, giving pain, promptly come, by quarts and pecks, but we wait and wait in vain for the letters with the checks!

Gas, it may be said, vitiates the atmosphere. True. But it also helps to purify it. Its purifying power is greater than its vitiating power. Electricity does not viliate, nor does it purify. Hear what three eminent men have said:—

Much evidence has lately been adduced to show that gas is more useful than the electric light in promoting efficient ventilation of air. It is for this, amongst other reasons, that gas is being frequently substituted for the electric light. The latest example is, perhaps, the Society of Medical Officers of Health, which has recently installed gas on its premises, after experience with the electric light.—Dr. Jamieson B. Hurry.

He would merely add that no member who had experience of their meeting room under the old conditions could deny the improvement that had taken place since gas had been substituted for the electric light and the new system of heating and ventilation had been installed.—Dr. Reginald Duffield, before the Society of Medical Officers of Health, at the meeting at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich.—Nov. 8, 1913.

Always Tell the Truth

Record of Drunkards Investigated by Commission.

Boston, Nov. 5.—Those troubled with a moral weakness causing perversion, exaggeration or evasion of the question at issue, would have found a cure for this deficiency in the State House, when Edwin P. Mulready, chief probation officer and President Wilson's appointee to the International Congress in Italy for abating the drink evil, said that all drunkards, or the greater part of them, tell the truth.

Not that Mr. Mulready suggested indulgence in alcoholic refreshment to shake off the pernicious habit of lying, but he told the commission that his department had investigated 86,000 cases of drunkenness entered on the police blotters and 77,000 were found to have told the exact truth in every instance. Judge Murray, of the court here, said the average was far better than that of sober men arrested.
