

ALL THE
THE

er losses: that is out of action ning new every prises. THIS

R NOW,
ices Advance.

ring
art-
will izes, 0c ome

will 0c

Early
and 50c

le Clearance

ial Lines at Cost.

- ouses 50c.
- esses 50c.
- sters 85c.
- ers 95c.
- ills 5c.
- Shirts 75c.
- resses $1.00
- ses $1.35
- es 75c.
- ers 45c.
- wear 45c.
- Cotton Over-
. 39c.
- 25c.
- Shoes $2.98
- ets. $2.50
- Skirts $1.25

ent of Framed Mir-
These were im-advance in price. was $2 50. At this

r Window Display—ome inside and be convinced.

ed clothing in them as soon as on off.

nce upon a time there was a child never had his picture taken. That his parents' fault.

nce upon a time there was a young who never had his picture taken. his fault.

nce upon a time there was a dear mother who never had her picture taken. That was her children's fault.

YOUR fault if your friends don't have YOUR picture.

raits portray life history. They a necessity.

range for a sitting NOW.

J. C. PARSONS,
Bank of Montreal Bldg.

Everyday Etiquette.

have been invited to a wedding and wish to know what I say when congratulating the e and groom," inquired Edna. to the bride, you may say, "Let me you every happiness in your marriage." To the groom, "I must congratulate you on the good fortune that ours to-day." was her aunt's suggestion.

enjoy your meals by taking responsful of Stafford's Prepation "A" before eating.
5c. and 50c. Postage 5
10c. extra.—July 22, 1916

ARD'S LINIMENT FOR SALE
EVERYWHERE.

Nothing known to science is better for this painful ailment than Zam-Buk. It reduces inflammation, stops bleeding, ends the agony. Easily applied and cleanly.
Why go on suffering? Why not try it?
Read the following cures.

Mrs. C. Hanson, Poplar, B.C., says: "I suffered for years with bleeding piles. The pain was often so bad I could hardly walk. I tried remedy after remedy, but finally underwent an operation, but only got temporary relief.
At last I tried Zam-Buk. Perseverance with this remedy completely cured me, and there has been no return of the trouble." Mr. W. J. Donovan, of New Edinburgh, Ont., writes: "For two years I suffered with bleeding piles. The pain was most intense.
I tried one after another of the so-called remedies, but without effect. At last I decided to try Zam-Buk. This gave quick relief from the dull, gnawing pain, and perseverance with Zam-Buk cured me. The cure has been permanent."

ZAM-BUK ALSO CURES ECZEMA, BLOOD POISON, ULCERS, COLD SORES, CHAPPED HANDS, SCALE SORES, CUTS, BURNS, BRUISES, SCALDS and ALL SKIN INJURIES and DISEASES. All bottles and boxes, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, post free for price.
Refuse harmful substitutes and preparations advanced as "just as good."

Zam-Buk

War News.

Messages Received
Previous to 9 A.M.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

LONDON, Oct. 18.
The Irish question was brought to the fore in the Commons to-day with the introduction by John Redmond of a motion criticising the system of the Government of Ireland.
The motion reads that the system of Government at present maintained in Ireland is inconsistent with the principles whereof the Allies are fighting in Europe, and is, or has been, mainly responsible for the recent unhappy events and for the present state of feeling in that country. Since Redmond gave notice of his intention to attack the Government, Irish leaders have had a number of conferences with Baron Wimbourne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, but these probably had little to do with the suggestion of the continuation of martial law, and the failure to release all those arrested during the uprising in Ireland last spring. However, the question of conscription did not come under Mr. Redmond's motion. It doubtless will be discussed when the whole subject of the man-power of the Empire comes up under review. John Redmond, Unionist member for Cambridge University, moved as an amendment to Redmond's motion the following: Having regard for the importance of the Kingdom and Ireland combining with the rest of the Empire in presenting a united front to the enemy, it is not desirable at the pre-

T. J. Edens

BADGER
DAIRY FEED.

Protein, 16 p.c.
Fat, 3 p.c. Fibre, 10 p.c.
TRY A SACK.

100 cases
CROW CHOW PICKLES.
10 oz. tins, $1.50 doz.

6 cases LOCAL EGGS, SPOKED SALMON,
P. E. L. BUTTER, 3 lb. prints, 100 bags BLACK OATS, 50 cases PINEAPPLE CUBES, 1 1/2 lb. tins.

STRAWBERRIES Preserved in bottles.
RASPBERRIES Preserved in
bottles.

PEAS Preserved in bottles, 50 cases EARLY JUNE PEAS.

100 Bags
P.E.L. Black Oats.

FRESH SHIPMENT TEA.
Dannawalla 50c. 50c. lb.
BullDog 45c. 45c. lb.
10 p.c. discount on 5 lb. parcels.

100 lbs. GRAY APPLES—
1 1/2, 2 1/2 and 3 1/2
5 lbs. SIB. CRABAPPLES, 10 bunches BANANAS,
20 cases CAL. ORANGES.

100 pairs FRESH RABBIT by Rail to-day.

T. J. EDENS.

Duckworth Street and Military Road.

THE "BREMENS."
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.
The New York World this morning says: From English sources of information, which have always proved to be reliable, the World has received the following: The first Bremen was captured in the Straits of Dover as she was following the tactics of the Deutschland in steaming along under the wake of an English vessel to escape detention. She had been spied further out, and a net was prepared to ensnare her. So completely was she entangled that it required two days to get out the crew of which five were dead and the remainder in the last stages of exhaustion. The most important part of the capture was a package of valuable documents and mail matter which it overjoyed British to possess. She was taken to Chatham, but where she now is was not stated. The British also captured the second Bremen, but no details are given. No attempt was made to capture the Deutschland on returning, as it was not considered worth while to risk boats to do so. A third Bremen is on her way and sailed expecting to dock in New London. She may be expected at any moment, as she has not been captured. The U-53, when it was found she had not arrived, rushed out to sea to find and aid her. Her mission was to look up the Bremens.
The Deutschland is coming out in November.

ITALY'S WARSHIPS.
ROME, Oct. 18.
Italy now possesses a type of warship whose speed is three times as great as that of the greatest Trans-Atlantic liner, according to the Gior-nal Italia. The sea trial of the first of these ships to be completed was witnessed by a correspondent of the paper. Three others are building. All of the new vessels will use oil fuel.

A WASHINGTON STORY.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.
The New York Sun gives unusual prominence to a Washington story, under the scare head, "Wilson is conceded that the sinking of the big liner was illegal. In view of Great Britain's illegal blockade, and in lieu of an admission that attack on the German was illegal, Germany was willing to compensate the relatives of those who lost their lives in the submarine attack on the British liner." This proposition, contained in a note addressed to Mr. Secretary of State, and practically all he has to do is to make it public to close the case. Mr. Lansing has stated that he has agreed to the terms as contained in the note.

The Sun concludes: "Germany, official circles, it is explained, regard the Lusitania case as definitely disposed of. As soon as the ambassador's note is published here, the Imperial Foreign Office will confirm it, and the terms of settlement will be published simultaneously in Germany and the United States."

NORWAY.
LONDON, Oct. 18.
Reuter's Christiania correspondent says that Norway has informed the Entente Allies that it does not recognize that it is its duty to prohibit the passage through or sojourn in Norwegian waters by belligerent submarines.

INSURANCE RATES.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.
A cable from London to the World says that the drop in Lloyd's trans-Atlantic insurance rates is believed in London to be due to the perfection of the Allied patrol in the waters visited by the U-53.

HURRICANE APPROACHING AM-ERICAN COAST.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.
The West Indian hurricane, which has been driving through the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico this week is rapidly approaching the American coast. It is expected to move inland somewhere between New Orleans and Apalachicola, Florida.

ON THE MACEDONIAN FRONT.
SALONIKA, Oct. 18.
Successful operations by the Italians on the Macedonian front, east of Monastir, are reported in the Serbian official announcement to-day.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.
ROME, Oct. 18.
The Italian troops at Mount Passubio, in the Trentino, yesterday broke the last Austro-Hungarian lines of resistance in the region between Cosmagnon and Roite, says an Italian official to-day. The Italian soldiers carried by assault seventy-two prisoners and a quantity of arms and ammunition were taken.

WANTS PROTECTION.
ATHENS, Oct. 18.
After the demonstration here against the Entente Allies, during which a procession of several thousand persons marched to the American Legation and protested against the leading of the French lines, a delegation of six persons called on the American Legation and presented a resolution asking sympathy and protection of the States against encroachments of the Entente Powers.

THE SUB. CONTROVERSY.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.
The United States will not feel called upon to make public any statement on the raid of the U-53 or sub. situation in general, it was learned authoritatively to-day in consequence of the statement in Parliament by Viscount Grey, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, that his Government would not make any official presentations to the States. Till such announcement is made here, the American Government, it was said, would not feel itself called upon to make any statement to the Allies about German belligerent operations on the American coast, more than it would report to Germany the recent visit of the French cruiser Admiral Aube, to an American port, or other Allied operations on this side of the Atlantic. Information would be probably supplied if requested. At present the State Department is making a study of the whole submarine situation, but it is now contemplating regulations, such as have been adopted in small European countries, which have the question before them.

KING CONSTANTINE.
ATHENS, Oct. 18.
Every act of Vice-Admiral Du Fournel, Commander of the Allied Fleet in Greek waters, respecting the control

the King and his Government is hanging by a thread. Yesterday afternoon when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Dufournel's refusal to moderate the Allies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where he declared his intention to resign. He told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Ministers, Lambros, has decided not to press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the disheartening of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state of anger and consternation. The King said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos, Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and consented reluctantly to defer his departure. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30, 000 cases of cartridges and 40 field guns. At two other stations there are respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

FREE BOX Send this coupon, name of paper, and 10 stamps to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, and receive trial box.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened
to the King, and found him in a state
of anger and consternation. The King
said: "There is nothing left for me
but to go with my family to Larissa."
The Premier was unable to shake the
King in his decision, and hastened
back to Athens and saw Skoufopoulos,
Gounaris and Dragumitis, who went
to Tatoi and reported the King not
to take this irrevocable step. The King
was influenced by their arguments and
consented reluctantly to defer his de-
parture. Meanwhile there is growing
proof of his intention to organize for
defence at Larissa. I have information that at Orfanon Station, a large
and modern junction of the Larissa
line there are 15,000 shells, nearly 30,
000 cases of cartridges and 40 field
guns. At two other stations there are
respectively 5,000 and 4,000 rifles.

THE KING AND HIS GOVERNMENT IS HANG-
ING BY A THREAD. Yesterday afternoon
when Premier Lambros communicated
to the King the French Admiral Du-
fournel's refusal to moderate the Al-
lies' fresh demands, high words passed,
the King telling the Minister that
only a confederate of the Admiral
would venture to present his King
with such. At night the Emperor, who
the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, where
he declared his intention to resign. He
told his friends that he realized that
the country had become unmanageable.
Afterwards he visited the Allied Min-
isters, Lambros, has decided not to
press his resignation for the moment.
Later in the evening, on the dishearten-
ing of French sailors, he hastened to the King, and found him in