Russia Wants

N. F. Fish.

The present discussion as to the advisability of opening up trade with Russia, has brought forth considerable argument for and against...

kinds of Newfoundland fish such as is now turned into murex should be sold in Russia at profitable prices.

We think that good terms could be come to, as Russia is starving and has a large supply of gold.

If you would open up a public fund for the relief of Russia, we would subscribe as well as we are able.

Yours faithfully, Abram Cohen, H. Cohen, Philip Wyman, Joseph Frehlich, I. Epstein, I. Wilansky, D. Wilansky, I. Levitz, O. Sidel, M. Epstein, Sol. Shegman.
