JOSEPH'S REGATTA; ANOTHER POSTPONEMENT.

Pipery and his willing band of helpers have the sympathy of all in efforts to hold his garden party regatta. Yesterday, from 2.30 till 3.30, the regatta was closed in, thousands of citizens crowded the way to the Lake. The heavy westerly gale that blowing at once precluded the possibility of running off any of the races. Just after tea two dory crews went for an exhibition spin and the regatta was nearly exhausted as the heat of their labors in bucking the waves was now over. The regatta was promised to make a strong bid against the locals for championship honors. The various side events and spinning wheels were well attended, but the Committee has not secured sufficient funds to reimburse them for their outlay to date. The programme will be run off starting at 6.30, while the regatta will be held on Monday night. The races will be—

6.30—Dory.
7.00—Amateur.
7.20—Intermediate.
8.00—Fishermen.
8.20—Football.

After the races are completed a dance will be held at St. Joseph's Hall and the Garden Party Funds.

THE HIGHLAND GAMES.

All athletes are anxiously looking forward to Wednesday afternoon next, when the Annual Highland Games will be held on St. George's Field. The programme has been very carefully arranged so that entrants may not experience inconvenience or hardship, but in several items. The track races will be—

100 yards.
1/4 Mile (Handicap).
1 Mile do.
Special item, and one that should be most interesting is the 100 yards race over 45 and weighing not less than 160 pounds, in which several of the "old timers" are taking part. A race of long distance walking is also forward to with the inclusion of a programme of a 10 mile walk on the Octagon to the field. Other events will be—

Tug-of-War.
Obstacle Race.
Mercantile Regatta.

GUARDS SPORTS ON 22ND.

A meeting of the Guards Athletic Association was held last night to make a decision as to when their Sports, postponed on Wednesday last, should be held. It was decided that they will take place at the Ayre Athletic Grounds on the afternoon of the 22nd. The Committee decided to add several more interesting items to the already choice programme, and nothing is being left undone to make it a gala day. Entries should be made to Mr. Stan Lumsden.

NEARLY DID IT.

DOVER, yesterday.—Georges Michel, French swimmer, abandoned his attempt to swim the Channel at 6.15 when he had only three miles to finish. He was taken with severe stomach cramps.

came across he wanted to knock nails.

One morning, his father heard sounds of hammering coming from the garden, and on looking out he saw Bobby busily at work on his favorite pastime. Beside him was his little sister Mary, apparently looking on.

Out came father.
"Haven't I told you, Bobby, that you will smash your fingers if you keep on driving in nails?" he asked.

"Yes, I know," said the sage youngster; "but Mary's holding the nail."

Customs Inspector: "What have you to declare?"
Returning Passenger: "I declare that I am glad to get back."

Mr. Brown: "I had a queer dream last night. I thought I saw another man running off with you."
Mrs. Brown: "And what did you say to him?"
"I asked him why he was running."

Mr. Beaver: "The young puppy told me to go and plant potatoes in my whiskers!"
His Friend: "Never mind what he says—don't you do it!"

Cochrane St. Picnic.

The Cochrane Street Sunday School Picnic, which was postponed on Wednesday owing to the unsettled state of the weather, was held yesterday. The train left the depot at 10.45, conveying the officers, teachers, parents and scholars to the number of four hundred to the splendid picnic grounds at Mount Pearl. On reaching the grounds the children indulged in the usual games and sports. Soon the football was kept going, swings were well patronized and the sale of drinks, oranges and ice cream kept the ladies busy. Hon. E. Milley, F. G. Bradley, L.L.D., worked like trojans all the afternoon, and presented beautiful gifts to the successful winners in the various races. Tea was served at 4 p.m., all doing ample justice to the good things provided by the caterer, E. Willis. A former pastor of the Church, the Rev. Dr. Bond, was present and received a hearty welcome from a number of his old friends of the congregation and school who were very pleased to see him again looking so well and hearty. Return to town was made at 8.15, when all seemed satisfied with the successful carrying out of the day's outing. —COM.

Playground Set Centre of Attraction.

The playground apparatus erected in Bannerman Park on Wednesday was the center of attraction yesterday for some hundreds of kiddies. The outfit erected just east of the band stand consists of a set of swings, a giant's stride, see-saw, basket ball court and chute the chute. The latter appears to be by far the most popular with the kiddies. So great was the rush to get a ride on this machine that two police officers in charge had to make the youngsters form a queue to wait their turn. At times as many as 200 children from 2 to 15 years of age formed the waiting line. The Rotarians may well feel proud of their efforts on behalf of the younger generation.

The Man Who United the Arab Tribes

A stir has been caused in London by the announcement that Colonel T. E. Lawrence, C.B., D.S.O., has enlisted, under an assumed name, as a private in the British army, in order to complete his book of war experiences. The name of Colonel Lawrence will live in the annals of the war for his romantic adventures in Arabia, and for the part he played in freeing that region from Turkish rule. Before 1914 an archaeologist and a fellow of All Souls' College, he was employed in the map department at Cairo during the early part of the war. Then he obtained permission to visit Emir Faisal, and the charm of his personality, and his mastery of the Arab tongue, won the Emir to the English cause, with the result that the Arabian tribes declared war against Turkey.
