

SATURDAY EVEN'G, MAY 23, 1868.

No Paper on Monday.

Monday being the day appointed for the celebration of the Queen's Birthday, no paper will be issued on that day.

THE IRISH CHURCH.

When did a Ministry suffer so many defeats as that of which Mr. Disraeli is the head? And still this dog-in-the-manger clings with pertinacity to his position. The cable informs us that on the night of the 22nd the Irish Church was the subject of debate, and the discussion was kept up with warmth and animation until a late hour. The Suspensory Bill, first introduced by Mr. Gladstone, was under consideration. This Act, if passed will suspend the making of any appointments in the Irish Church until the first of August, 1869, by which time the Liberals no doubt believe that the connection between the State and the Irish Church Establishment will have been severed. Notwithstanding the most desperate efforts of the Government party, the Bill passed to a second reading by a vote of 312 to 258; and the Disraeli Ministry were shown fresh cause why they should consider their position.

HARD ON DISRAELI.—The London correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune makes the following reference to the closing debate on the Irish church question in the House of Commons, and to the indignant speech of Mr. John Bright:—"What everybody had been muttering in private Mr. Bright at last openly declared in debate. Taunting Mr. Disraeli with his volatile inconsistency, he described his statement on Monday night of his interviews with the Queen as a mixture of pomposity and servility. Far more than that—a Minister, who deceives his Sovereign is as guilty as the conspirator who would dethrone her," and though Mr. Bright declined to make this charge directly against the Premier, he went on to say: "Let me tell the honorable gentlemen opposite, and the right honorable gentlemen in particular, that any man in this country who puts the Sovereign in the front [loud and continued cheers from the opposition], of a great struggle like this into which it may be we are about to enter, who points to the Irish people and says from the floor of this House, 'Your Queen holds the flag under which we, the enemies of religious equality and justice in Ireland, are marshalled,'—[Cheers and counter cheers]—I say that the Minister who does that is guilty of a very high crime and a very great misdemeanor against his Sovereign and against his country." I have inserted the cheers as they appeared in the newspaper report, but they will give you no idea of the storm of applause that swept over the House. The language is without precedent in that decorous body, but equally without precedent is the treachery which called it forth, and the sympathy with the orator was not only perfect, it was passionate. Mr. Disraeli was foolish enough to complain of his antagonist as ungentlemanly; but the 300 Liberals who cheered Mr. Bright, are too many to be included in that charge.

FENIANISM.—The Liverpool Mercury contains a letter from British Columbia notifying the existence of serious apprehensions regarding an intended Fenian raid on the colony. Should such an event take place as that apprehended, a good opportunity would present itself for our Canadian boys to go in, and go on settling up the country, as if the Hudson's Bay dog-in-the-manger had no existence.

ERRATA.—A slight error occurred in the score of the match between the Rifle Association and the Guelph Artillery which we published yesterday. Mr. Geo. Elliott is represented as having made only two points by his first shot, whereas he made three. The latter figure, it may have been noticed, is necessary to make what his total is properly stated to have been—28 points. Furthermore Mr. McKenzie is represented as having made only one bull's-eye, when in fact he made two.

RELIGIOUS SQUABBLE.—A bitter controversy has arisen between Marshal McMahon and the Archbishop of Algiers. The Archbishop has directed that all the young Arabs whose parents have died during the famine shall be received in the Catholic seminaries, and baptised at the age of twelve, if they desire to become Christians. The Marshall protests against this attempt to proselytize, and declares that the children must be returned to their respective tribes. The Archbishop resists, and has threatened the Marshall with the little scoundrel by sabre, Chassepot, and raid in civilizing the Arabs.

Seal fishing in Newfoundland this season has so far been good. 67 vessels had arrived in port on the 28th ult., with 243,390 seals, or an average of 3,632 seals each. Several sad accidents have occurred, and four or five fishermen have been drowned. We also hear of a distressing account of a woman and four children having been frozen to death.

The Revolution has a female reporter who is a first-class shorthand writer, and who attends all public meetings of importance. She is rather pretty, without, and dresses neatly (debaring a shock of black hair) in black, abhors hoops and sports as handsome a shoe as will be worn in a day's walk on Broadway. She is soon at the present rate, Paris for nothing. The tariff

OTTAWA, May 23.

Sir G. E. Cartier, with reference to the notice of motion he has given for an additional appropriation of ten thousand dollars to pay the volunteer officers one dollar instead of fifty cents for each day's drill, said the Government had ascertained that the militia appropriation already made was sufficient to pay this additional fifty cents, without asking a special appropriation. He would not, therefore, move for the address.

THE SENATE.

At two o'clock His Excellency the Governor General proceeded in state to the Chamber of the Senate, in the Parliament Buildings. The members of Senate being assembled, His Excellency was pleased to command the attendance of the House of Commons, and that House being present, His Excellency gave the Royal assent to the various Bills passed during the Session. His Excellency the Governor-General was then pleased to close the first Session of the first Parliament of the Dominion with the following speech:

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:—

I am glad to be enabled to release you from further attendance to your duties in Parliament. The acts which you have passed for remodelling the Militia force of the Dominion and securing the defence of your territory will, I trust, accomplish the objects which you desire to obtain. I hope the measures which have been adopted for regulating the fiscal system of the Dominion will tend to the promotion of commercial enterprise and to the stability of the public credit. I congratulate you on the passage of acts by which the Executive Departments of the Dominion have been organized, and their efficiency provided for. I must express my regret that the measures for the assimilation of the criminal law for the several Provinces of the Dominion, which were submitted by my directions to Parliament, have not been presented for the sanction of the Crown.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:—

I thank you for the provision you have made for the public service, and I am satisfied it will be applied with due regard to efficiency and economy.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate:—

I rejoice that I am in a position to congratulate you on the general prosperity which prevails throughout the Dominion, and I feel assured on your return to your homes you will exert yourself in promoting obedience to the laws, and inculcating an attachment to the free institutions which it is your happiness to live under. The Speaker of the Senate then said:—

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Commons,—It is His Excellency the Governor-General's wish and pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued until Wednesday, first day of July to be here held, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued until Wednesday, 1st day of July next.

FRENCH TROTTER STALLION,

ROUVILLE ST. LAWRENCE

WILL stand for Mares at his own stable at the Anglo-American Hotel, Guelph, this season. Terms as last year, $8, $5 and $3. This is the best made horse and fastest trotter in the County of Wellington. He is of the stock of the fastest trotting horses on record. His sire was sold for $8500; his time on Long Island Course being 2:24; his dam trotted on the New York Fashion Course in 2:50; his dam's full sister has made her time in 2:28, and is now owned by the celebrated horseman, Robert Bonner, of the New York Ledger. In consequence of the last judgment of the judges appointed at the last Horse Show at Guelph I will not disgrace my horse by travelling against such a horse as got the first prize in his class show. A Favoritism and want of judgment is the general rule now adopted, so that no good horses need be expected to show here another season.
