Commissioner Smith Replies to Booth.

London, Jan. 2.—Commissioner Smith has published a reply to Gen. Booth in which he asserts that he undertook the work as set forth in the book "In Darkest England" with the understanding that the scheme was to be directed by a separate department. He resigned his position he says, because he found that the Salvation Army officials had decided that the financial and property departments of the army should be transacted by other departments which he believed were already fully occupied.

Rival Ocean Steamers.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 2.—The last season's runs of the rival queens of the ocean, the City of New York and the Teutonic, have created a great deal of interest not only in shipping circles, but also among the general public. The average time of each voyage of the Teutonic, according to her log, was 6 days, 6 hours and 5 minutes, while that of the City of New York was 6 days, 4 hours and 55 minutes, an average of 1 hour and 10 minutes per voyage quicker than her rival.

loys took part. A small stage was erected in the school room and opening upon it was a room used as a dressing room by the children. Inside this dressing room, just before the disaster, a crowd of joyous children were gathered, all the girls of the party being in light gauzy attire, and many of them covered in addition with cotton wool used to represent show. In addition several of the children carried, dangling on sticks above their heads, lighted Chinese lanterns. The tableaux vivants, then preparing, was intended to symtolize the winter trolics of the "Mummers" in days gone by. The parents and friends of the children were assembled in the school-room, when suddenly shricks of terror issued from the little dressing-room, and the audience sprang in alarm from their seats, while a number of children rushed upon the stage with their costumes on fire. In a moment the air was filled with cries of terror from the children and from the ladies in the audience. Several ladies fainted, thus adding to the confusion. The gentlemen then promptly seized the burning children, threw them upon the stage and smothered the flames, which enveloped their garments, with curtains, mats, window blinds and anything they could lay hands on in the emergency. Several gentlemen tore off their coats and used them to save the lives of the panic stricken children, Finally, suffering children to the number tof about 20 where taken to the Wortley Infirmary, while others were attended to at their own homes. A Beautiful Young Quakeress Marries the Man of Her Choice.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—A New Year's event, which has caused not a little com-motion among the unusual quiet Society of event, which has caused not a little commotion among the unusual quiet Society of Friends, the marriage contemplated between Miss Mary Elkinton, the daughter of a prominent member of the society, and Inazo Nitobe, a young Japanese, took place this morning at the Friends' house. Every effort had previously been made by Miss Elkinton's immediate relatives and friends to prevent the consummation of the union. Arguments and persuasion, however, were alike unsuccessful in making the young lady swerve from the man of her choice, who had out of regard for her become a member of the Society of Friends.

As a last resort the father of the bride endeavored to have the couple debarred from the meeting house. On Christmas day a committee of friends reported favorably upon granting the use of the building for the ceremony. The marriage license was secured and preparations at once begun for to-day's ceremony.

After the wedding a reception was held at the residence of Wm. H. Elkinton, brother of the bride. Mr. Nitobe is a man of high rank in his native country, his family being among the most distinguished and wealthy in Japan and occupying a leading position in the affairs of the Government. He is a graduate of Harvard College and of a celebrated institution of learning in Germany, Mr. and Mrs. Nitobe will leave in a few days for San Francisco, from which port ther will sail on Jan. 17 by steamer for Yakoama, Japan, their ultimate destination bing Sapporo.

The decrease in the weekly traffic of the Scotch railways in consequence of the strike amounts to £27,000, Edinburgh is now the stronghold of the strikers. The men continue to hold mass meetings in Glasgow, Edinburg and other railway centers, but the attendance is smaller. The North British Railway Company, for the first time since the strike, began yesterday running a full passenger service. The freight business showed evidence of improvement. The Caledonian Company's freight traffic is heavy.

The strike of the Hungarian furnace men at the Edgar Thomson's steel works at Braddock, Pa., resulted in a serious rivesterday. The Hungarians quit work at midnight. About 100 men remained at work repairing furnaces. About 1 o'clock 200 strikers armed with clubs, shovels, revolvers, iron bars and other weapons attacked the furnace. The men at work were unprepared, but bravely stood their ground. The Hungarians used their weapons freely, and men were knocked down, clubled, bruised and unmercifully beaten. The Hungarians were finally beaten off, when it was found that Michael Quinn was fatally hurt, Andrew Kramer, John Neason and Patrick Briggs, all workmen, had been seriously wounded, and a dozen others more or less injured. The sheriff has sworn in 200 deputies and ordered all the saloons in Braddock closed.

In looking over your health officer's report on the milk that is delivered in the mon herds of our milkmen can be ma produce milk of a very superior quality. Now, this knocks both theory and practical experience out of time, as it has always been thought that it required cattle in good condition and liberally fed to produce the best results. Now I have been wonderthe best results. Now I have been wonder-ing if the report would be anything like the present one if the Board of Health would appoint a man to take up samples and deliver them to the analyst by num-bers while he retained the names until the nearly useless. Brunton, that Ald. Garratt had a contract on the King street fire hall, which work was being done under No. 3 Committee, of which Ald. Boyd is chairman; also that Ald. Boyd was a terant of Ald. Garratt's. Of course there is nothing in the fact of Ald. Boyd being a tenant of Ald. Garratt's, but there is a good deal in Ald. Boyd, as chairman of No. 3 Committee, allowing Ald. Garratt to draw city money or work for the city while occupying the position of siderman, as it is contrary to law and a direct violation of an alderman's oath of office. I expected to have heard from either of the aldermen in explanation of the charges in Mr. W. Y. Brunton's letter, but they have seen fit to keep dark in the matter. It is the wish of a large number of citizens that Ald. Boyd should fully explain this transaction. It is also rumored that the extras on the job amount to more than the original contract.
