AN ALVINSTON WOMAN DEVORCED.
Detroit, July 11.—In the circuit court here on Monday, Judge Hosmer presiding, the case of Albert Prangley and Albert E. Pelett, who were married in 1894, and resided in Detroit until July 1 of last year, when the husband disappeared, was heard. Mrs. Pelett, a mere slip of a girl, when asked why they separated, replied that her husband was addicted to drink, "and I could support him no longer." She was given a decree upon the grounds of cruelty and non-support.

50 BOERS KILLED!

Enemy Defeated in a Severe Fight Between Machadodorp and Lydenburg.

Canadians Given Commissions as Officers in the South African Frontier Police—Cape Colony

Rebels Hanged!

SEVERE FIGHTING.
London, July 11.—Severe fighting, according to a dispatch to the Express from Lorenzo Marquez, has taken place between Machadodorp and Lydenburg, the Boers being defeated with at least 50 killed.

MORE RIFLE PRACTICE.
Lord Roberts has decided that in the future the use of the rifle must be the first consideration in the training of recruits for all arms of the British service. Sword, lance and bayonet exercises have been abandoned. A band of expert cavalry officers has pronounced the sword to be practically useless in warfare, although a sword of a different pattern will remain a part of the cavalryman's equipment.

REBEL HANGED.
Marais, the well-known Cape rebel, was hanged at Middleburg, Transvaal Colony, yesterday. By order of the military authorities, the execution was witnessed by prominent residents of Middleburg.

CANADIAN HONORED.
Ottawa, July 11.—Lieut. George M. Sutherland, of the 7th Colchester Highlanders, and Lieut. A. W. Boddy, of the 36th Peel Regiment, have been appointed to commissions in the West African frontier police.

The Canadian Scouts who are to arrive in the old country next week from South Africa are made up of men from volunteered Canadian contingents, who the late Major "Gat" Howard, instead of coming home last winter. They have done good scouting work since the corps was formed, and have frequently been mentioned in the newspaper dispatches for brave conduct.

BOER REFUGEE RELEASED.
New York, July 10.—The Boer refugee, David Stephen Du Plooy, who was held by the immigration officials as a stowaway immigrant, was released today by the board of special inquiry.

Dr. Plooy had been in the Trinidad after escaping from Darrell's Island, British West Indies. The case was treated as that of a stowaway immigrant, no weight being given to the fact that

Dr. Plooy had been in the Trinidad after escaping from Darrell's Island, British West Indies. The case was treated as that of a stowaway immigrant, no weight being given to the fact that

Du Plooy had been a prisoner of war. R. Von Schramm, owner on an apartment house in this city and of a ranch in Yuma county, California, assured the board that he would look after the young Boer, and that there was no danger of his becoming a public charge. The board then disposed of the case by imposing a fine of $10, which was paid by Charles D. Pierce, the representative in this city of the former Orange Free State.

CHASING THE ENEMY.
Cape Town, July 10.—The British column under Wyndham and Lund are pursuing the Boers under Commandants Mahan and Lategan. It is expected that the Boers will attempt to "double back" to the Richmond district.

The recruiting of irregular forces has been stopped in Cape Colony, but the government is still taking men for the Imperial Light Horse, the South African Light Horse, the Johannesburg Mounted Rifles and Kitchener's Scouts.

SENTENCES ON REBELS.
Burgersdorp, July 8.—A man named Pansegrou (7) was sentenced by the Treason Court to twelve months imprisonment and to pay a fine of £1,000, or in default an additional year's imprisonment for having joined the forces of the South African Republics.

Roelf Lategan, a brother of a commandant of that name, has been sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment for joining the Republican forces in 1899, and for taking part in the fight at Damplaat, where Hanna's patrol was captured.

"FORT CANADA."
Ottawa, July 11.—In a private letter written from Krugersdorp, Capt. Lawless, of the South African Constabulary, says his command has just finished constructing a fort which they have called Fort Canada. At Krugersdorp they built three block-houses, seven feet high, and with a five-foot radius. Through these block-houses are loopholes. The men are constantly sniping at the Boers. Just a couple of days before the letter was sent one of the men was shot from ambush by a Boer. In fact the enemy pretty well surround the station. "The work is hard, but we are in perfect health, and like the life," he says. With Lawless are Capt. Bristol and Bennett.

TO CHECK SMALLPOX
Dr. Hodgetts' Opinion, Based on His Recent Visit to Scotland, Brant.

Toronto, July 11.—Dr. C. A. Hodgetts, who has returned from investigating the smallpox outbreak at Scotland, Brant county, comments on the difficulty of properly diagnosing smallpox, which in this case, as in many others, was supposed to be chicken pox. In the neighborhood affected two-thirds of the people were unprotected by vaccination, the result of which, the doctor says, is an object lesson to other municipalities.

Dr. Hodgetts is of opinion that unless prompt and efficient measures are taken by municipalities in reporting suspicious cases and securing general vaccination the approach of the autumn will see an outbreak more alarming and more disastrous than any seen for some years. The following table shows the ages of the various patients in the Scotland outbreak is of interest:

Under one year, 2 cases; 1 to 10, 40 cases; 10 to 20, 13 cases; 20 to 30, 13 cases; 30 to 40, 10 cases; 40 to 50, 7 cases; 50 to 60, 4 cases; 60 to 70, 3 cases.

HALF MOURNING
Mauve, Lilac, Gray, Also Black and White Can Be Worn During Royal Visit.

Ottawa, July 11.—Major Maude, governor-general's secretary, has issued the following memo in reference to the royal visit:

"During the forthcoming visit of Her Royal Highness the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York to Canada half mourning should be worn by ladies, according to Queen Alexandra's orders, that is, mauve, lilac, gray, or black and white."

Addresses for presentation to his royal highness should be commenced as follows: "To his Royal Highness George Frederick Ernest Albert, Duke of Cornwall and York, Earl of Inverness, and Baron Kilgarnock, G.C.M.G., G.C.V.D., LL.D., D.C.L., etc., etc. May it please your Royal Highness."

If desired reference may be made to her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cornwall and York in the body of the address.

WILL PROBABLY VISIT LONDON.
It is not at all probable that the royal visitors will spend a week in Toronto. They will probably visit Woodstock, Guelph, London, Niagara Falls and Hamilton in the interim between their reaching Toronto on Monday, and leaving on Saturday. They will possibly spend two hours and a half in Hamilton. It is also possible that on leaving Kingston they may take boat through the Thousand Islands Park to Brockville, rejoining the G. T. R. there.

DEATH OF ESTEEMED RESIDENT OF LOBO
Daniel Steels Passes Away After a Short Illness.

One of Lobo township's best known and most progressive citizens, died at 7 o'clock this morning, in the person of Daniel Steels, of lot 11, con. 4. Death (which followed an illness of about ten days) was due to internal trouble. Mr. Steels was born near Toronto, 67 years ago. He came to Lobo about the time he attained his majority, and engaged for many years in the business of building and contracting, in which he was highly successful. Fifteen years ago he went extensively into farming, making as great a success of that venture as of his former pursuit. Mr. Steels was a man of shrewd business ability. In politics, he was independent, owning allegiance to no political party.

His wife, who survives him, was the daughter of the late Lachlan Macintagart, one of Lobo's earliest pioneers. The family consists of seven sons and one daughter, they being: John and Albert, in Manitoba; Joseph, Strathroy; and Daniel, Herbert, Wellington, Jay, and Annie Bell, at home.

TOWN SWEPT AWAY.
Austin, Texas, July 11.—Private telegrams state that Port La Vaca, a Calhoun county town, was swept away by a storm. Nearly all the houses were blown away and a large number of boats were wrecked, but no lives were known to have been lost. La Vaca is on La Vaca Bay, Gulf of Mexico. Wire communication with that part of the coast is entirely cut off.
