Driven Off the Coast They Swarm On a Lightship.

San Francisco, April 29.—The captain in charge of the lightship situated at the southwest channel of the bar at the entrance of San Francisco harbor rement: "The whole discussion by the cently reported to the United States lighthouse commissioner that on the newspapers has been simply a feeling about in the dark. Not one item of in-15th of September, a large number of formation has been given out hereto-fore by anyone. The freedom with vessel. A dense smoke from northern forest fires hung over the locality and completely obscured sea and land. Evidently the birds has lost their way and, exhausted by their long flight, the wanderers lighted on the ship undeterred by the presence of the crew. At one time 60 of the feathered guests were counted on various parts of the ship. Awls, cranes, humming birds and other nonmarine species were noticed during the time. The swarm continued during the prevalence of the smoke, but vanished when the weather cleared.
