Staggered the Michigander in the Second. But He Recovered Quickly.

Philadelphia, June 9 .- Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion, tonight defeated Jack O'Brien in the third round, thus accomplishing a feat that Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion, failed to accomplish in six Latter Won First in Merchants' rounds some three weeks ago. The fight was stopped in the second minute of the third round, after O'Brien had been knocker down twice in the second and once in the third, and was almost unable to raise his hands to defend himself.

This time he struggled Russell caught a good game, while two seconds later the gong rang.

Last Round Brief.

The third and last round was brief. Ketchel went in for a knockout. In his anxiety to finish it quickly, he went wide of the mark. The fact that Ketchel is to meet Johnson in a real championship fight within the next few menths was not lost sight of. Indeed, it was this opportunity to draw a comparison between the big black fighter and the smaller but more aggressive white man that gave tonight's contest more than ordinary interest. Besides, Ketchel, who won a decisive victory over O'Brien but a few weeks ago, though admittedly he had the worst of that fight in the first halfdozen rounds, had declared he could defeat the Philadelphian in four or six rounds as decisively as he did in ten rounds on that occasion. The crowd, however, did not wholly share Ketchel's confidence, and so it came to see.

Close Affair-Distance Is 15

Buffalo, June 10. - If Frank Nebrich can win from Henry St. Yves in the 15-mile run at Baseball Park on Saturday afternoon, there will be witnessed a scene of jubilation second to nothing short of that attending a victory in a holiday baseball game. The Buffalo boy will have a host of rooters. The little Frenchman betrays the greatest interest in his rival, known to him before his arrival in Buffalo. He has run over Nebrich's exploits in the Amateur Athletic Union days, and has developed considerable more respect for the ability of the little Buffalo lad than he had hitherto enjoyed. "They do not tell me about him and he is better than many that I have raced," he complained.
