A Plain Tory Candidate

There is no uncertainty in London over the color of the political horse which Sir Adam Beck seeks to ride to Toronto with the hydro buggy hitched behind.

The horse is Tory, and Sir Adam Beck is an out-andout Tory candidate.

Sir Adam says so himself and so do his Conservative newspapers. The only paper which is trying to believe otherwise is the Toronto Globe.

The Globe in another appeal for Beck's election says: "SIR ADAM BECK DOES NOT ENTER THE FIELD AS AN ORDINARY SUPPORTER OF MR. FERGUSON." It is unfortunate if anyone believes this statement. Its fallacy can best be told in words from Sir Adam's own lips.

At the Conservative convention on May 25th, postponing his decision, Sir Adam Beck stated:

"I AM ANXIOUS TO SERVE . . RESENT 365 MUNICIPALITIES AND I CAN'T DESERT THEM. I EXPECT, HOWEVER, TO HAVE A CON-SULTATION WITH HOWARD FERGUSON.

Sir Adam's private sense of duty to the people's hydro warned him against deserting his trust. His consultation with the Tory leader resulted in Sir Adam's decision to put duty aside and yield to the persuasions of the Tory party.

IT WAS HOWARD FERGUSON WHO MADE BECK A CANDIDATE IN LONDON.

How then can anyone be so deluded as to believe that "Sir Adam does not enter the field as a supporter of Mr.

Yesterday Sir Adam Beck repudiated statements which he made to The Advertiser regarding the O.T.A. In his repudiation, as published by his Tory newspaper, the Free Press, Sir Adam declares his allegiance to Mr. Ferguson by defending the latter's temperance quibbling in the fol-

"THE WOMEN OF LONDON KNOW WHERE THE LEADER OF THE CONSERVATIVES AND WHERE THE PARTY STANDS ON THIS QUESTION. THE ADVOCATES OF TEMPERANCE MUST GIVE CREDIT TO THE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT, OF WHICH HON. HOWARD FERGUSON WAS THEN A MEMBER, FOR THE O. T. A. NOW ON THE STATUTE BOOKS."

Sir Adam Beck, by his own words, is a straight Tory candidate and a follower of Howard Ferguson. As a Tory candidate he is not merely surrendering the people's hydro to Mr. Ferguson's scheming.

HE IS LENDING THE WHOLE VAST ENTERPRISE TO THE TORY CAMPAIGNERS IN LONDON TO HELP THEM IN THEIR EFFORT TO WIN AN ELECTION.

Sir Adam Beck could have deserved universal support by standing as an independent hydro candidate in any one of the twelve outside ridings which invited him.

But as, an out-and-out Tory candidate in London, with hydro tied to the Tory chariot wheel, Sir Adam Beck has made a mistake which merits the condemnation of every right thinking citizen, regardless of party affiliations.
