Plantation Philosophy. From the Arkansas Traveler.

Dear brother, you are a man so smart that I don't know anybody else smart.

When you see old man git his awful, deole family, when he runs or crawls, I see de buggy all ter pieces.

De mo' or man tinkin' dat he de best, he thinks o' de debil, for in all de things, de debil shows dat he siders his' fust.

De man what tells de fool what tries ter vince his 'quintances, dat de ain' no God, but dat de 'fol' is de loudes' voice 'at 'n' wants musky de quikes'.

De man what tells de truth, although it may make de curious mad, de honest den de man what tells a hundred lies ter please de neighborhood.

THE WORLD AT LARGE.

The health record of Cincinnati is reported to have greatly improved since the flood cleaned the unwholesome districts.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern science has been attained by the Elix treatment for catarrh.

Out of 2000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent have been cured of this stubborn malady.

This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent of the patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioners are cured.

While the patient medicines and other advertised cures never cure a cure at all, lived by the most scientific method, the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues.
