AROUND THE LAW COURTS.

To Wind Up the Ontario Express Company—Action Against the C. P. R. —Local Suits.

A motion was yesterday made before Chancellor Boyd by Messrs. Jonathan W. Howarth and Philip T. Perrott to have the affairs of the Ontario Express Company wound up. These gentlemen are two of the shareholders of the company. Owing to the company's failure to obtain carrying privileges over the Grand Trunk Railway its finances are in a bad state. Its only assets are said to be the delivery wagons in Toronto and other Ontario towns, while its liabilities amount to $78,722.15. The Chancellor will not give a decision until he learns the wishes of the other shareholders.

The Chancellor also ordered that the Graybill Manufacturing Company wind up its affairs and that a liquidator be appointed.

An application was made before Chancellor Boyd by Henry Bothwell for an order relieving him of responsibility as trustee of the estate of Mrs. Jane Harvey, whose husband some time since assigned. Butwell, at the time he assumed the trusteeship, held a claim of $2034 on the property, and with a view to enhancing the value of the estate he sank another $1000 in improvements and as a result is now liable for some thousands more. The other trustees, John Douglas and Hugh C. Salmon, opposed the application and the Chancellor reserved judgment.

Some time since John Hendry, ex-policeman, assigned for the benefit of his creditors to F. W. Unitt. After he assigned a $600 claim on the Toronto Police Benevolent Fund to John Pratt, another creditor, Unitt disputed the latter assignment and Acting Master Winchester gave judgment yesterday, deciding that Pratt is entitled to the $600.

Bolton v. C.P.R.—Tais is a suit brought against the C.P.R. to recover $12,800 for gravel taken by the railway company from the Algoma land of the plaintiff, G. H. Bolton. Mr. Bolton bought the land of M. Shea of this city, who held it as a squatter. A third party, the Ontario Government, now comes into the case and claims the land and the gravel pit on the ground that the patent was never taken out. Master Winchester has referred the case to arbitration. Hon. A. S. Hardy is acting for the Ontario Government, and Hon. R. W. Scott is looking after the interest of the C.P.R.

The First Reformed Presbyterian Church.

A parlor social was held on Tuesday evening at the residence of the pastor, Rev. Stuart Acheson, M.A., 46 Beecher-street. A large number of members and friends were present and spent a very pleasant evening. Among those that took part were Mr. G. E. Hardie, Mr. R. H. Ramage, Mr. Woodside, Mr. Ellis, Miss Gertie Farley, Miss Ferguson and Miss A. Pearson. Short addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Willoughby and A. G. McLean.

James Cullen, Pool's Island, N.F., writes: "I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

$6000 Wanted for Charity.

During the month of January the House of Industry distributed among the poor of the city 231 tons of coal, 268 bushels of coke, 75 cords of wood, 10,573 loaves of bread and large quantities of rice, oatmeal, sugar, tea and other kinds of provisions. The treasurer reports an indebtedness of $400 to different city merchants, and that it would take about $6000 to carry on the work till spring. The City Council will be asked to grant that amount.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs, and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

Full assortment of dress shirts, collars, ties and gloves at lowest cash prices at Treble's Great Shirt House, 53 King-street west.

NEW HOME FOR THE LOTTERY.

The Louisiana Swindle to Remove to the City of Mexico.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A despatch from New Orleans says that at last the true secret of the withdrawal of the Louisiana lottery from the fierce political struggle which has been raging for many months is out.

The lottery is to go to Mexico. Arrangements to that end have about been completed with President Diaz and the fortress of Chapultepec will be the location of the "Louisiana Lottery" after 1893.

While the directors of the company have not as yet held any meeting to consider the propositions made by different cities in other countries, it is known that Mr. Morris favors the City of Mexico, and that practically settles the entire matter.

Gaelic Society's Officers.

The following have been elected officers of the Gaelic Society for the year ensuing: President John Campbell; first vice-president, John C. Macmillan; second vice-president, Campbell Mackenzie; treasurer, D. M. Robertson; corresponding secretary, Alexander Fraser; recording secretary, Neil Robertson; hon. patron, Archibald McKellar, sheriff of Wentworth; chaplains, Rev. James Carmichael, King, and Rev. Alexander MacGillivray, Toronto; solicitor, James Smith; pipe major, Charles Munro; violinist, Donald Carmichael; committee, Mrs. Smith, Misses MacGillivray, Spence, Beeton and Mortimer, and Messrs. Robert Swan, Donald Morrison, Donald Macdonald, Benjamin Cameron, Alexander Cameron, Neil McKenna, John MacCallum and A. R. Macdonald.

Canadian Institute.

The paper announced to be given on Saturday evening by J. W. L. Forster, entitled "Nineteenth Century Sacred Art," will be given the second Saturday in March. Mr. Sandford Fleming will take Mr. Forster's place with a paper on "The Spirit of National Government."

Liquor at the Junction.

At the time Col. Denison was meting out sentences for breach of liquor law cases, Squire Ellis and Mayor Pears were similarly occupied at Toronto Junction. These were the penalties: John Mann, two charges, $50 and costs each or three months at hard labor; John Skean, $20 and costs; John Holmes, $50 and costs; C. Sinclair, $20 and costs.

The Church Opened.

St. Clement Church, the newly-erected Anglican Chapel in North Toronto, was formally opened yesterday. Large audiences attended both services. In the morning Canon DuMoulin discoursed and at the evening service the Bishop of Algoma officiated in a similar capacity.

Youthful Criminality.

The Board of the Children's Aid Society met yesterday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Parsons presided. The attendance was exceptionally large. The only thing done was the discussion of a number of amendments to various laws governing child criminality. These are to be presented to the Ontario Legislature.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
