

WE MANUFACTURE 34 DIFFERENT KINDS OF Registers, Antiquarian Registers from THE NATIONAL CASH REGISTER OFFICE, 63 KING WEST.

THIRTEENTH YEAR.

THEY BRAYED AT THE VICAR

THREE WAD AND VIOLENT SCENES IN LADY GODIVA'S TOWN.

Another Murder in a Deceit—Lord Rosebery and the Men of Chichester—Sir Charles Dill's Candidate—M. Roymond Reappears and Tells the Story of the Murder of His Wife.

LONDON, May 27.—At Coventry to-day a mob brayed at the vicar as he went to enforce district proceedings for the repayment of the vicar's rate, and prevented the sale of the goods that had been seized to satisfy the claim.

The auctioneer led the protection of the police. Nobody was hurt.

When returning from church the vicar was hooted and jeered at by a howling mob. In the evening he was burned in effigy.

THE BRITISH COMMONS.

The Date of Disolution Still Worried the Members.

LONDON, May 27.—A cabinet council was held to-day for the special purpose of determining the date for the dissolution of Parliament. It was attended by all the Ministers except Mr. Stanhope.

Communications made to members after the council indicated a decision to proceed with the Irish local government bill and the abandonment of the intention to resort to early dissolution.

Mr. Gladstone's definite declaration of the course of the Whitechapel adjournment.

It is understood that Mr. Balfour demanded of his colleagues time to complete his scheme of legislation, even though a winter session was required.

Mr. Gladstone to Mr. Balfour.

LONDON, May 27.—In the House of Commons Mr. Balfour moved the vote on account.

Mr. Gladstone said that the time was opportune to ask the Government its intention in regard to the termination of the session. He had been informed by the Government that the session would be adjourned on the 29th inst.

Mr. Balfour agreed with the Government that an adjournment on the 29th inst. would be a reasonable period.

He must, however, defer until a better opportunity to make a declaration of the Government regarding the matter.

Mr. Labouchere said he did not think the House felt much indebted to Mr. Balfour for the information he had furnished.

THE RUC DE ROCHER AFFAIR.

Mr. Raymond Emerges From His Hiding Place and Tells the Terrible Story.

PARIS, May 27.—After the assassination of Mrs. Lasminone in the Rue du Rocher on Saturday by his wife M. Raymond went to the home of his mother, where he remained in seclusion until yesterday.

The police had made enquiries at the house of a school for boys, but had not accepted her assurance that she had not seen her son for several days.

Yesterday M. Raymond appeared before a magistrate and narrated all the incidents of the tragedy. He was confronted with his wife.

ROBERTSON ON HOME RULE.

Liberals Will Not Be Indifferent to the Question of Home Rule.

LONDON, May 27.—The Earl of Rosebery, in an address at Birmingham to-day, said that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain had formed Birmingham from a Liberal town into a Tory pocket borough.

Mr. Gladstone, being out of office, could not frame a scheme for Home Rule in Ireland which was not yet in existence.

Whatever scheme was adopted, however, the Liberals would not be indifferent to the claims of the people of Ulster.

ANOTHER MONTE CARLO VICTIM.

Dependent By Losses, a Young American Blows Out His Brains.

NEW YORK, May 27.—James McElroy, aged 32, an American who left New York in the early part of May for a pleasure tour of Europe, committed suicide at Monte Carlo on Tuesday last.

Wellberg played for several days at the Monte Carlo gambling tables and lost about 100,000 francs.

On Tuesday, while in the reading room of the Casino, he shot himself fatally with a revolver, dying soon after.

ST. PETERSBURG'S MAYOR.

Charged With Being Fervid To the Advantages of Floor.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 27.—Mayor Likhatchev has resigned office on account of attacks made upon him in connection with the distribution of food among the starving peasants.

He is said to have been privy to the adulteration of flour by provincial officials and to have enriched himself with hush money.

His conduct will be investigated by a special commission chosen by the czar.

THE DANISH FESTIVITIES.

COPENHAGEN, May 27.—Ten thousand veterans, wearing the medals earned by their services in the late war, marched in a body to the Alnaborg Palace, in this city, to offer their congratulations to King Christian on the celebration of his golden wedding. The King addressed them from the steps of the palace, warmly thanking them for the proof of their fealty to him.

The Maypoles Burgholmed.

LONDON, May 27.—Thieves, by means of ropes, scaled the 60-foot wall that incloses the rear of the building, occupied by Messrs. Broth, manufacturers of silver, electroplate, etc., last night, and forcing their way into the building, plundered the firm of 3000 ounces of silver.

Sir Charles Dill's Candidature.

LONDON, May 27.—Replying to a ladies' memorial against the candidature of Sir Charles Dill for Parliament Mr. Gladstone writes that he cannot interfere either directly or indirectly, as it is a matter purely for the decision of the electors.

More Killing at a Deceit.

VENEZIA, May 27.—A man named Marchetti to-day surprised his wife entering her room.

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

MURDERED THE WHOLE FAMILY.

Shocking Tragedy in British Columbia. Tell-True Bloodstain.

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 27.—Word comes from Lillooet district that an entire Indian family, consisting of parents and three children, have been murdered. The family, which lived at Saxon Lake, went to Bridge River to work the Place Higgins, as was their annual custom, about March 28.

On April 1st the older girl went into Lillooet on horseback to buy a sack of flour and that was the last seen of any of them.

A day or two ago two Indians called at their tent on the bank of the river. The following day the bodies were dragged to the river, and hair and bloodstains on the rocks. A rifle, saddle and other articles that the family owned are missing.

The Indian agent for Lillooet has offered a reward of $200 for the discovery and conviction of the murderers.

still Another Murder.

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 27.—Jimmy, a Whanungo Indian, is missing. He is supposed to have been murdered. The theory of his being drowned has fallen through, as his canoe was found today.

SUNDAY AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The House Votes to Close the Government's Exhibit.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The House today, in the committee of the whole on the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill, took up the subject of the amendment proposed by Mr. W. A. Stone (Rep., Pa.) to the bill.

The amendment providing that the Government exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition shall not be open to the public on Sunday. Adopted.

The question then returned on the original amendment as amended by the majority, and it was adopted.

A Customs Officer's Sudden Death.

LONDON, Ont., May 27.—A well-known citizen, Thomas G. Lows, died very suddenly this morning. Deceased was engaged at his duties as landing water at the Customs Department at the C.P.R. freight sheds this morning and after 11 o'clock he left his chair going to the door, where a loaded car was about to be opened.

Immediately on reaching the open air he fell and immediately he lay motionless before assistance could reach him and expired.

Hill Drifts Three Feet Deep.

COLUMBIA, S.C., May 27.—Frog Williamsburg County comes reports of serious hill drifts in this county. The hills are being covered by heavy rain and the hills are being covered by heavy rain and the hills are being covered by heavy rain.

Mr. Balfour agreed with the Government that an adjournment on the 29th inst. would be a reasonable period.

He must, however, defer until a better opportunity to make a declaration of the Government regarding the matter.

Mr. Labouchere said he did not think the House felt much indebted to Mr. Balfour for the information he had furnished.

THE RUC DE ROCHER AFFAIR.

Mr. Raymond Emerges From His Hiding Place and Tells the Terrible Story.

PARIS, May 27.—After the assassination of Mrs. Lasminone in the Rue du Rocher on Saturday by his wife M. Raymond went to the home of his mother, where he remained in seclusion until yesterday.

The police had made enquiries at the house of a school for boys, but had not accepted her assurance that she had not seen her son for several days.

Yesterday M. Raymond appeared before a magistrate and narrated all the incidents of the tragedy. He was confronted with his wife.

ROBERTSON ON HOME RULE.

Liberals Will Not Be Indifferent to the Question of Home Rule.

LONDON, May 27.—The Earl of Rosebery, in an address at Birmingham to-day, said that Mr. Joseph Chamberlain had formed Birmingham from a Liberal town into a Tory pocket borough.

Mr. Gladstone, being out of office, could not frame a scheme for Home Rule in Ireland which was not yet in existence.

Whatever scheme was adopted, however, the Liberals would not be indifferent to the claims of the people of Ulster.

ANOTHER MONTE CARLO VICTIM.

Dependent By Losses, a Young American Blows Out His Brains.

NEW YORK, May 27.—James McElroy, aged 32, an American who left New York in the early part of May for a pleasure tour of Europe, committed suicide at Monte Carlo on Tuesday last.

Wellberg played for several days at the Monte Carlo gambling tables and lost about 100,000 francs.

On Tuesday, while in the reading room of the Casino, he shot himself fatally with a revolver, dying soon after.

LOYALTY AND DISTURBANCE

A Report From Montreal Sections Sir Joseph for the Yacancy.

MONTREAL, May 27.—The Hon. Mr. Baker, Judge Foster and Mr. Richard White, as already mentioned, have been appointed repeatedly in connection with the vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of the late Senator Rivers.

Later, however, the name of Sir Joseph Hickson was mentioned for the vacancy, as a sort of compromise, and it was asserted on good authority that Sir Joseph would get the seat. This is not surprising more in public life than some of his friends expected he would have. His busy habits as general manager of a great railway concern, still show in his daily life and he is as active as ever.

Another rumor is to the effect that Richard White will be appointed Collector of Customs here.

IN TWO FEET OF WATER.

While Temporarily Inmate, John Sherlock of Caledonia Drowns Himself.

CALEDONIA, Ont., May 27.—About 5 o'clock this morning John Sherlock, a young man, was drowned in the water. He was in the water for some time before he was discovered.

Deceased had been confined to the house for some time on account of illness, and he had been in the water for some time before he was discovered.

He got up once during the night, but he was unable to get back to bed, and he walked straight to the spot where he was drowned.

It is thought that he was in the water for some time before he was discovered.

TRADE PICKING UP.

Bank Clearings Exhibit a Decrease, as do Also Retailers.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The vast expanse of high water, which has been in progress since the 15th inst., has caused a general trade lull.

Bank clearings at Montreal, Halifax, Toronto and other cities have improved at many points. The volume of business has increased this early.

There were 22 business failures reported to Bradstreet this week. Last week the total was 21, and for the week a year ago 30.

THE TRAPPER'S VOW.

Mr. J. S. Boddy, the next speaker, and also a son of Canada, was more sanguine of results. He thought that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

WHO IS WILLIAM LINSEY?

A CANADIAN COMMITS SUICIDE IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 27.—William L. Lindsey, of Lindsay, supposed to be an unemployed and dependent dry-goods salesman, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting himself with a revolver.

He was in New York for some time on account of illness, and he had been in the water for some time before he was discovered.

He got up once during the night, but he was unable to get back to bed, and he walked straight to the spot where he was drowned.

It is thought that he was in the water for some time before he was discovered.

TRADE PICKING UP.

Bank Clearings Exhibit a Decrease, as do Also Retailers.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The vast expanse of high water, which has been in progress since the 15th inst., has caused a general trade lull.

Bank clearings at Montreal, Halifax, Toronto and other cities have improved at many points. The volume of business has increased this early.

There were 22 business failures reported to Bradstreet this week. Last week the total was 21, and for the week a year ago 30.

THE TRAPPER'S VOW.

Mr. J. S. Boddy, the next speaker, and also a son of Canada, was more sanguine of results. He thought that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

Some of the speakers mentioned the fact that the day would be a successful one.

THAT MASONIC RELIC.

The Book and Inscription Evidently Genuine—The Fraternity All Over the Province Evincing Great Interest.

ALBANY, Ont., May 27.—Some days ago I sent The World particulars of a book found in a box in a room in Upper Park.

The book, which has a polished surface, is six or seven feet long and a couple of feet in depth, bearing an inscription that, judged by its appearance, had been placed there by an unknown hand at a very early period, as the action of the elements in the intervening period clearly demonstrates.

The following is a copy of the inscription, but great reduced in size:

"My beloved John O'Connell, God bless you always and every minute. I must seek the remains of the year 1853 had done the work, but of course all in vain speculation.

Mr. Forry's intent was saving out the interesting relic, and it will form the nucleus of a museum in connection with his lodge—Mississippi No. 147, A.F. & A.M., G. O. C. Albany, N.Y. Provided.

Some Almoate craftsmen have submitted specimens of the polished stone to a prominent geologist, with the object of gaining information as to the effects of the elements on it through the lapse of time, and every effort will be made to unravel the mystery surrounding the affair.

SIR ALEX. CAMPBELL BUREAU.

An Impelling and solemn Ceremony at Kingston Yesterday.

KINGSTON, May 27.—This morning at 3 o'clock the train, heavily draped, carrying the remains of Sir Alexander Campbell, rolled into the K. and P. R. Station.

Withstanding the early hour there was a large congregation present, including many of the members of the House of Commons.

The casket was carried into the city hall and laid out in a parlour, erected in the vicinity of Alvington-avenue.

While lying in state the public were admitted to view the remains, and before the funeral procession started thousands of people looked upon the face of the dead statesman.

The procession was formed at noon and moved to Cataragi Cemetery by way of Ontario and Princess-streets, all the business places being closed.

Among the mourners were C. J. Campbell, E. Campbell, Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. G. W. Allen, Harcourt Vernon, Chairman of Law, Capt. Harston, Toronto; Hon. Frank Smith represented the Dominion Cabinet; Hon. C. F. Fraser the Ontario Cabinet.

At Cataragi Cemetery prayers were said and the body was laid to rest in the presence of a large number of people.

BURGLES AT A PRISON.

Penitentiary Employees Have Their Homes Broken—A Fight in the Dark.

KINGSTON, Ont., May 27.—While C. Bayley, electrician at the Penitentiary, was on duty robbers entered his house, located in the vicinity of Alvington-avenue. Two women sleeping in the building saw men running about, but were so terrified they did not make a sound.

On Wednesday night the residence of St. P. Wood, farmer at Penitentiary, was entered by burglars. They tried to chloroform Woods and his wife. They however awakened Woods and he seized one of the men, but he got away.

Presterian General Assembly. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will open its sessions in the vicinity of Alvington-avenue. Two women sleeping in the building saw men running about, but were so terrified they did not make a sound.

Money Loaned on Easy Terms. Owners of central property can secure loans at lowest rates and on advantageous terms by applying to Mr. Troy at Ontario Mutual Life Office, 32 Church-st.

The St. Catharines Attempted Murder. QUINCY, May 27.—The young girl (Gladys) who was murdered by her father, St. Catharines, is now out of danger and will come to town to appear against the prisoner in the Police Court next week.

Told in a Line or Two. Creeds, Colorado, is in danger of extinction by floods. The British flag ship Blake arrived at Halifax yesterday.

S. A. Bee, Chinese Consul at San Francisco, dropped dead on the street. The funeral of young Vanderbilt took place in New York yesterday.

Andrew Blake of Orilla has lost two children from diphtheria. The Methodist General Conference was brought to a close at Omaha yesterday.

Two persons were burned to death in a cheap lodging house at 145 Court-st., Boston, yesterday.

The courts have justified the Chicago police in their seizure of red flags on May 27.

President Underhill of the defunct Flower City Life Association of Rochester has been convicted of forgery.

By the action of the Methodist General Conference, just closed, women are given an opportunity to enter the next General Conference.

J. Edwin Stone, who is walking from San Francisco to New York, has passed Chicago. He must be in New York July 4.

John Fitzmaurice, convicted last week of the murder of John Rothwell, was yesterday sentenced to death by hanging.

William H. Parker, the negro who killed an Italian at the Niagara Falls, N.Y., tunnel, was sentenced to life imprisonment at Auburn yesterday.

John J. Wilkes, a trooping horse, under the false pretences that he was a record-breaker and has been committed to trial.

EDGAR'S CHARGES REFERRED.

A LIVELY DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr. Laurier Moves That Charges Be Referred to Committee of the House Instead of to a Commission. The Amendment is Defeated by a Majority of Forty-seven.

OTTAWA, May 27.—At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Sir John Thompson moved, seconded by Hon. Mr. Chapleau:

That the House approve of the appointment of a committee to inquire into the charges against the Postmaster-General and to report thereon to the House.

Mr. Laurier moved that the charges be referred to a committee of the House.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.

Mr. Laurier's Amendment. Hon. Mr. Laurier said that the Opposition did not propose to discuss the qualifications of the judges, because they refused to recognize the commission in any way.

He held the view that the charges against the Postmaster-General was the House of Commons. This was the view of the House of Commons.