WEDDING

Stronach—Anthony

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Anthony, when their eldest daughter, Mary Celeste, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Foyle Stronach, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stronach, Clarence. Rev. P. R. Hayden, pastor of the Baptist Church performed the ceremony.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered the room on the arm of her mother, in the absence of the father. The bride was very becomingly dressed in white crepe de chene with wedding veil and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink and white sweet peas, and was attended by Miss Mary Miller, who wore yellow organdie and carried a bouquet of yellow and white flowers. Mr. B. Pearson acted as best man.

The house was beautifully decorated, the work of her girl friends, the color scheme being pink and white. The ceremony was performed under a large wedding bell, which hung from an arch of ferns and sweet peas. After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served.

The gifts were numerous and beautiful showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Stronach left by motor for Halifax and a trip around the South Shore.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT AT WEST PARADISE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sarsfield, West Paradise, was the scene of much gaiety on Wednesday evening September 2nd, when a large number of friends gathered there to tender a "miscellaneous shower" to Miss Elizabeth Sarsfield, whose marriage to Mr. Alfred Spinney, of Harmony takes place at an early date. The rooms were tastefully decorated with sweet peas and crepe paper, the color scheme being pink and white. On a table in the living room stood a basket in all its pink and white
