

AT THE ROYAL BURGH.

(Continued from page 755.)

Horse by a head. The time in the second heat is a fair indication of what the 11-miles would have done had the track been good. It was just exactly the opposite, yet without being driven home from the distance stand he turned it in 2:13. It was another, and to no one else, in the 2:30 trot. Betting on both events was light. The summaries are as follows:

2:30 class, trotting, purse $500.
Chas. Hantas, ch.b., by Pocomota-Bay	1 1 1
Wilek King, ch.b., by Pocomota-Bay	2 2 2
Pocomota, Prince, by Pocomota-Bay	3 3 3
Time, 2:10, 2:13, 2:13.
2:30 class, trotting, purse $500.
Arthur, km., by Princeton, time 2:11	1 1 1
Sanjour, br., by Gen. Washington, time 2:12	2 2 2
Harry Eddy, ch.b., by Gen. Washington, time 2:13	3 3 3
Harold, ch.b., by Gen. Washington, time 2:14	4 4 4
Laundry Girl, ch.b., by Gen. Washington, time 2:15	5 5 5
Epitaph, ch.b., by Gen. Washington, time 2:16	6 6 6
Time, 2:10, 2:13, 2:13, 2:14, 2:15, 2:16.

Fifth and Last Day.

WYBOM, Sept. 16. This was the concluding day of the Windsor trotting meet, but the weather was cold, and racing was thus rendered disagreeable. The second division of the 2:30 trot had been left over from Saturday, and the association added two specials, 2:28 trot or pace and a 2:35 trot. The performance of Mamie B., who won the 2:30 trot, and took a record of 2:20, is creditable indeed, as she is virtually a green mare, this being the first season she has been campaigned. Little Jay went to beat 2:32, travelling the circle in 2:25, and the Duke of Nottingham, a three-year-old, went a half in 1:08. Owing to darkness it was decided to make the 2:35 trot heat 2 in 3. Summaries:

2:30 trot, purse $500.
Mamie B., ch.m., by Sportsman-James	1 1 1
Mr. Detroit, br., by Louis Napoleon	2 2 2
Dr. A. Murray, flint, km.	3 3 3
Chas. Hantas, ch.b., by Pocomota-Bay	4 4 4
W. Wilson, Boston, ch.	5 5 5
Beno Motter, ch.b., by Blackhawk, by	6 6 6
Elaine, km., by Elmer's King & Son	7 7 7
W. H. Cassidy, br., by Young Jim, by	8 8 8
Hamlet Horse, br., by Farm-Jack, by	9 9 9
Prince A. G., ch.b., by Prince Flor, by	10 10 10
Robert Lansing, ch.	11 11 11
Bumble Bee, km., by Rooker's White,	12 12 12
Windsor, ch.	13 13 13
Calico, km., by Montague, W. S.	14 14 14
Kiloban, km., by W. S.	15 15 15
Time, 2:20, 2:28, 2:25, 2:25.
2:35 trot or pace, purse $500.
Little Fred, ch.b., by Mitchell, John	1 1 1
Cash, by Cash, by Logan Chief, Dan	2 2 2
Dryer, Lansing, ch.	3 3 3
John Corbett, br., by George L. Napol-	4 4 4
ean, E. D. Fox, Windsor	5 5 5
John, km., by Louis Napoleon, H. A.	6 6 6
Emery, Bay City, km.	7 7 7
Little Jay, ch.b., by Jay Bird, W. S.	8 8 8
Chas. Hantas, ch.b., by Pocomota-Bay	9 9 9
Time, 2:25, 2:25, 2:25.
2:35 trot, purse $500.
Satin Wilkes, km., by Scarlet	1 1 1
Wilder, Ben Smith, Windsor	2 2 2
Black Harry, ch.b., A. W. Greer, De	3 3 3
W. S.	4 4 4
Dan S., ch., by General Stockton, J.	5 5 5
A. S. S. S., Windsor	6 6 6
Black H., ch., by Al Pacha, C. D.	7 7 7
Brownie, Windsor	8 8 8
Time, 2:30, 2:30, 2:30, 2:31.

ROBERT J., THE PACING KING.

He Goes a Mile in a Race in 2:02 1-2.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., September 6.—The record for the mile in harness is now 2:02, and Robert J. still wears the crown.

The new record was made in a race, and in the second heat. The gelding pulled up and jugged the last ten yards. Joe Patchen proved himself the greatest of all pacing stallions by forcing the champion to go three miles in 2:03, 2:02, 2:04, making an average of 2:03 2-3, while the time of the black stallion was 2:04, 2:03 and 2:05.

Alix, the racing queen of trotters, trotted a mile to defeat Nanny Hanks, but failed to disturb Nanny's record, although she lowered her own to 2:04 3-4.

The free-for-all pace had only two starters, Robert J. and Joe Patchen. The heat was simply sufficing, as the pair came to the pole.

Patchen drew the pole, and on the third score they were off. The clip was a corker. At the first furling Robert J. made a break and fell back five lengths, while Patchen was not losing any time. Cool and calculating Geers took in at a glance the situation, and began his drive—not as some would have done, but as the only silent man can do. Geers is as wisely known as the greatest rater and judge of pace that ever pulled the ribbons. Inch by inch the distance lessened, and when Patchen wheeled into the home stretch the pony king was only a few feet back. Carry, with a glance at his shoulder, could see his foe gradually gaining. Both men were driving, but not with whip; horses like these don't need the face. Fifty yards from the goal the white face of Joe Patchen was in advance by half a neck. The last string of people held their breath and waited with deathlike stillness. Three lengths off they were head and heels. With a vigorous lift Geers seemed to push the king in.

FIRST BY HALF A NECK.

Next time both went without a shudder, with Geers setting the pace. Carry dropped into the pole, but was well on even terms at the half in 1:01. At the last end of it Geers eased up his horse, as Carry had all his hopes of winning. He then shot out at the finish in 2:02. The applause from the 8,000 spectators was deafening.

In the final heat Robert J. made another break, falling back three lengths, and the greatest artist of the track again showed his head and great wisdom in making his drive. The gain was gradual but sure, and Robert was first home by a quarter of a second.

When the average time of 2:03 2-3 was given out, the cheerers were proposed cheer for Ed Geers, Robert J., Jack Curry, Joe Patchen and C. J. Hamlin, and the immense stand fairly trembled. The capital city of Indiana felt proud of owning the fastest track in the world.

Andy McNewell appeared on the track at 4:30 with Alix. Mike Bowerman drove the thoroughbred stimulator, Ferdinand. On the first trial, after a merry half in 1:02, when looking a record breaker, the graceful young man made a break and jugged home 2:07. The loss of a shoe caused the mishap.

At 5:45 Alix appeared again. She went to the quarter in 30 3-4, to the half in 1:02, past the three-quarter in 1:23, and home in 2:04 1-4. A feat that had been equalled by only a few stallions.

Match race, for $500.
Robert J., ch., by Hartford Geraldine, by J. G. Gold, racing.
Joe Patchen, ch., by Patchen Wilkes—Josephine Young, by Joe Young (Jack Curry).

	First	Second	Third	Quarter	Time
Robert J.	31	1:01	1:30	2:02	2:02 1-2
Joe Patchen	34	1:01	1:30	2:04	2:04 1-4

Budd Doble got out an attachment for the mare Belle Vara, 2:08 1-2, a couple of weeks ago, on account of an alleged unpaid training bill, and now S. A. Browne, the owner of the mare, has brought suit against Doble for damages, the amount being placed at $10,000, which he alleges he sustained because Doble did not start Belle Vara in races as he agreed to do, while she was in his stable, and which races she might have won. If the suit ever comes to trial it will be watched with much interest by horsemen generally.

STABLE CLEANINGS.

Horse items for this column will be welcomed from any part of the country.

A Queen's County Jockey Club with a capital of $50,000 has been organized at Albany, N.Y.

Judge Gaynor, of New York State, has rendered a decision declaring the lives pool law constitutional.

A half brother to Arak was sold to Gideon & Dyke for $2,500 at the Brook side stud sale in New York.

Robert J., 2:02, and Fantasy, 2:07, will be driven exhibition heats against their records at the Glasgow, Ill., meeting.

Star Pointer, 2:13 3-4, went lame recently at Fort Wayne, Ind. Geers received him as a sure candidate for a 2:08 record.

Don't measure things from the point of your own speciality. The man who can't drive a horse may be able to run a 10,000-ton steamship.

An English owner who races under the name of J. Desmond, has registered two stallions, "white, black skull and cross-bones."

The death is announced at Lenoirville, Que., of Jack Shuter, a well-known horseman and owner of Dodger, 2:18, and other fast fellows.

The two-year-old pacing record has been lowered by a half second by Directly, the black son of Direct, who paced the mile at Indianapolis in 2:10.

Doble's Direction reduced his record from 2:14 to 2:10, and Hamlin's Ed. Easton, took three seconds off his work, and placed it at 2:03 3-4, at Indianapolis last week.

Red Clinton reduced his record to 2:08 at Lansing, Mich., chased out by Belle Vara. The old timer Jack succeeded in getting second money in the race, trotting the last race of his life.

The Indiana Governor's horse of the Incense, Exeter Caligula, was ordained as a priest and consul, had a manger of ivory and was given a gallon of wine from a golden palmy day every.

Charles Boyle, of Woodstock, bought at the Brookside stud sale in New York, last week, a chestnut colt, by Favorite Cyclone by Parsoness, for $650. He is a half brother to Cyclone.

Some field and fences lately cut upon the sides of two valuable mares belonging to Mr. Henry Rydall, Alameda township, near Warton. One was dead when found and the other had to be killed.

Mr. Headen's horse, Coquette, finished fifth in a two-mile race to Harry Alton, at Sheephead Bay, the other day. Coquette led for 11 miles, and looked all over a winner, but went to nothing when challenged.

Domino, the best two-year-old last season, gave Clifford, the good western horse, a decisive beating in a mile race at Sheephead on the 6th. Domino carried 112 pounds and his opponent 10 pounds more. The time was 1:39 2-3.

A consignment of trotters will be sent East from Palo Alto early in the coming winter to be sold, and among the lot will be Truman, 2:12, a brother of Palo Alto, 2:08 3-4, and the two-year-old Day Bell, by Palo Alto, out of Beautiful Belle.

There is only one man racehorse trainer in the world. Her name is Mrs. Chadsen, and she owns an excellent training stable at Newmarket, England. She is the proud mother of five sons, all of whom are connected with the turf.

Cope Stinson lost his brood mare Lones, by Clay Wilkes, dam by Horrid, while transferring her along with his stock from Brentford to his new quarters at Hamilton. The mare was very valuable. Her first foal was sold for $1,500.

Thursday and Saturday, September 27 and 29, have been selected as the days when the Red Jay Jockey Club of Montreal, will hold their first meeting. The club will endeavor to attract the best wheels or other gambling apparatus to be run on its track for the future.

From his race, when he showed his heels to Pocomota and Terran as some of his sons at Sheephead on the 6th, it is to be judged that Vinton, Mr. J. K. Seagrave's son of Terran, has at last reached his true form. He won a cup in 1:48 1-5, fairly good time for 118 mile.

Four Canadian horses, Miss King, Athol and Ellis, run in the Colington Point handicap steeplechase at Newmarket, last Thursday. Maxon, he was disqualified, and the race awarded to King King. Athol was second and Higgins Polara, won a five-furlong race, the same place.

Ed. Foskes, the trainer of the Princess Stable, and formerly trainer of Hendrie, of Hamilton, is going to England, where he has not been since he left seventeen years ago, when the two-day tour, which he had not been in the great "jockey" was to come over to him.

A funny tale is being told concerning horse deal at a recent horse fair in New York. At the close of the fair some looking horses remained unsold. A big team of five shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

At Windsor fall meeting, September 24, Billy C., a road horse, breeding known, won the 2:35 pace in four heats, the fastest being the second in 2:15. It is owned by a Toledo chemist, F. J. Cheney, who has been trading since he purchased one, after much bargaining, for a few shillings less than $5, and the owner to return him a half crown "for luck." The owner refused, but said: "Err, I won't be at it; take other as instead."

TORONTO'S

An Admirable

Details

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.

The six-year-old son of the late J. K. Seagrave, who was killed in a racing accident, is now being trained by his father.