SMALL FRUIT RECORDER

Cottage Gardener

A MONTHLY paper devoted solely to Small Fruits, Vegetables and Flowers. The Editor has had a lifetime of experience in these things, and has now under cultivation over two hundred acres of small fruits alone.

He takes or exchanges for every Agricultural and Horticultural paper printed in the United States and Canada, and also reads all new works pertaining to these subjects, from all of which he will copy into the Recorder all practical matter pertaining to these subjects, so that by taking this paper you get the cream of all these publications on this subject.

The numbers for 1870 will contain a practical and interesting Story, entitled "EXPECTATIONS REALIZED," showing how a person commenced right in growing Small Fruits, and kept on right, and in the end became very successful and prosperous. It will also contain the Editor's "RAMBLES AND JOTTINGS OVER THE FRUIT FARM," and also one to two columns in each number of "QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS." Every lover of Fruit and Flowers should subscribe for it. Price only 50c. per year.

Any person sending us six names and $3 has one copy Free and a choice from our Club packages of choice Plants.

SPLENDID INDUCEMENTS offered in the most desirable plants to those getting up Clubs, for particulars of which send stamp for our Club Circular. Address A. M. PURDY, Palmyra, N. Y.
