

produced the intoxication of the person causing such damage or injury; but should the amount of damages claimed exceed twenty dollars, then the persons sustaining the injury or damage may recover such amount as may be assessed by a jury in the Supreme Court.

5 Any clerk of license, or any Justice of the Peace, or any person authorized by them may seize and destroy all intoxicating liquors found exposed or intended for sale by any person or persons holding no license for such sale and for that purpose, if necessary, upon reasonable grounds for suspicion, may enter into any house or building and seize, take away and destroy all such intoxicating liquors.

6 Penalties sued for under Chapter 19 Revised Statutes, 3rd series, and the acts in amendment thereof shall be recovered as prescribed by Section 21 of said Chapter, except that five days previous service of summons on defendant shall not be necessary.

7. All acts or portions of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

N. HILTON,
H. GARDNER, } Com'tee.
W. M. BURRILL,

PROTEST OF P. G. W. P. DAVID MARSHALL.

REFERRED TO ON PAGE 128.

To the Grand Division Sons of Temperance in Quarterly Session at Hillsburgh, Digby, Nova Scotia, July, 1873.

WORTHY PATRIARCH AND BRETHREN,—

I beg most respectfully to lay before the Grand Division of Nova Scotia my dissent and humble protest from the action taken by the Grand Officers in refusing to execute the commands of the Quarterly Session of Grand Division held in New Glasgow in April last past.

And also to protest from the action of said officers in entering into an unauthorized correspondence with several Divisions in a manner of general interest already disposed of in a legal and constitutional manner.

I also entirely dissent from the fallacious grounds upon which said officers based, or pretended to base, their action.

I beg leave to thus enter my dissent against what I conceive to be action subversive of all constitutional action on the part of this Grand Division by said officers.

And I beg that this my protest will be in order for consideration at the Annual Session in October.

In Love, Purity and Fidelity

DAVID MARSHALL.