

and Star—and The London Advertiser—for donations of their papers.

Messrs Ure & Co. Rev. W. Briggs (Methodist Book Room), John Young Esq., (Bible Society), and Bengough, Moore & Co., for donations of periodicals.

S. R. Briggs Esq., Willard Tract Depository, 60,000 pages Tracts and Illustrated papers.

Messrs J. & G. Strathern. Loan of a water filter.

Messrs Kent Bros. A Clock.

Mr. T. Houlgrave. A supply of Ice.

We also testify to the very efficient services rendered by Mr. Hines, our Assistant-Secretary, and also to the acceptable manner in which Master Hewitt, our young organist, presided.

Once again we have been permitted to testify for Christ to hundreds of precious souls. Again has our tent been a standing testimony to the aggressive character of our work. Again we sit down to look back upon a work for which we shall have to give an account to God. May He bless the good, and pardon the evil which He can so fully see.

MEETINGS.

VERY marked improvement in attendance upon the several meetings held by our Association, is a special call for gratitude.

In it we recognize answer to prayer, and we are looking for still greater things.

The Sunday evening Meeting is very largely attended. On Sunday, 11th inst., the ground floor of the Hall was filled, and the attendance last Sunday was also large.

The Saturday evening meeting EXCLUSIVELY FOR YOUNG MEN has increased in the numbers attending, to about 75 or 80.

The Noonday Meetings have not been so largely attended as we would desire, but one thing is certain, they have been, on the whole, seasons of spiritual refreshing.

The Monday evening Worker's Prayer Meeting would not attract much attention from those who look for large gatherings. A few Young Men gather and for one hour, heartfelt, believing prayer ascends, and in our Saturday and Sunday meetings we see the answer. The last meeting was one which impressed us deeply. The tenor of the prayers, clearly spoke of heart-searching. The acknowledgment of failure in duty, and the longing cry for deeper consecration to the Master, told that the Spirit of God was working. How much we owe to those prayer meetings we shall never fully know while here. One thing is certain, when we knelt and listened to the deeply earnest prayers that the Secretary and his Assistant should have wisdom to devise, skill to execute, and strength to bear up under the duties devolving upon them, we left that room, holding the key to the secret reason why difficulties had vanished—obstacles had been overcome—rough places made smooth, and we thanked God for a band of praying helpers.

YOUNG MEN REMEMBER

A

Hearty welcome awaits you

At any of our Meetings.

COME AND SEE.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

THE late date at which the Circulars (calling the Annual Week of Prayer) has in former years been issued, has with us in Canada, somewhat militated against the general observance of the 1st Sunday in November as a day for Sermons to Young Men. Some of the Pastors had made their arrangements for other dates, and change could not well be effected. To meet the difficulty we have this year issued a preliminary circular letter to our City Ministers, asking them to arrange as far as possible, for united observance of the day named.