THE LEISURE HOUR

A MAGAZINE FOR CULTURED PEOPLE

This splendid English magazine has not hitherto had as wide a Canadian circulation as it deserves. It is one of the best monthly magazines published in England. Its literary standing is of the highest; it is bright, interesting, abreast of the times and splendidly illustrated.

The Toronto Globe says: "The Leisure Hour is a household word to many of us, and associated with the awakenings to mental culture through the variety and superior quality of its reading matter."

In order to meet the competition of United States magazines the price for Canada has been reduced to ten cents per copy and $1.20 per year, postage paid.
