

A HARD LIFE.—If an editor omits anything, he is lazy; if he speaks of things as they are, he is mad; if he glosses over and smooths down the rough points he is bribed; if he calls things by their proper names, he is unfit for the position of an editor; if he does not furnish his readers with jokes, he is a mullet; if he does he is a rattle-head, lacking stability; if he condemns the wrong he is a good fellow, but lacks discretion; if he lets wrong and injuries go unmentioned, he is a coward; if he upholds a public man he does it to gratify spite—is a tool of a clique, or belongs to the "outs"; if he indulges in personalities he is a blackguard; if he does not, his paper is dull and insipid.
